CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

Dear Shareholders,

It gives me immense pleasure to present our Annual Report for the Financial Year 2025-26. This year continued to be eventful, gave us further insights and tested our mettle as well. As a group we continue to progress fast in existing industries, while simultaneously exploring newer spaces. The entertainment park business remains high in our priorities and we continue to back it fully to scale to its full potential.

A Year of Transformation

FY 2025-26 was an important year in the evolution of Imagicaaworld Entertainment Limited. While our financial performance was moderated by weather-related disruptions and investments undertaken towards future growth, our core business remained resilient and we took affirmative steps into the indoor entertainment space. The year also marked meaningful progress in strengthening our portfolio and laying the foundation for our next phase of growth.

India's Growth Story and the Tourism Landscape

India continues to be one of the world's fastest-growing major economies, supported by strong domestic consumption, rising incomes, rapid urbanisation, improving infrastructure and a young and aspirational population. The country's growth is increasingly being accompanied by a shift in consumer preferences—from ownership of products towards experiences, leisure and memorable moments with family and friends.

Tourism and leisure are important beneficiaries of this structural change. India's travel and tourism sector contributed approximately 5.2% of GDP in 2025 and supported an estimated 8.5 crore direct and indirect jobs adding to ~13.34% of total employment, highlighting its growing economic significance. The Government's continued focus on infrastructure, connectivity, tourism and development of cities and regional economic centres is expected to further expand the addressable market for organised leisure and entertainment.

The Economic Survey 2025-26 also highlights the broad-based nature of India's economic growth and places potential GDP growth at around 7%. For the leisure and entertainment industry, this combination of economic growth, rising discretionary spending, greater mobility and increasing demand for quality family experiences creates a favourable long-term environment.

An Industry with Significant Headroom

India's amusement and theme park industry remains relatively underpenetrated compared with mature international markets, providing considerable scope for organised players to expand. The industry is evolving beyond traditional outdoor amusement parks towards integrated entertainment destinations comprising theme parks, water parks, indoor entertainment centres, immersive experiences, food and beverage, retail and hospitality.

Industry estimates indicate strong growth potential for India's amusement park sector, with the market projected to expand from approximately US$7 billion in 2026 to over US$11 billion by 2033. The broader Asia-Pacific amusement park market is also expected to grow strongly, with India emerging as one of the fastest-growing markets, supported by rising urban incomes, domestic tourism and increasing family entertainment expenditure.

We believe the opportunity is therefore to reach the customer, create high-quality, differentiated and scalable entertainment destinations that can capture a larger share of consumers' leisure spending across multiple occasions and formats.

Strengthening the Financial Foundation

As we invest for growth, we remain focused on financial discipline and responsible capital allocation. Our fund-raising initiatives have supported strategic acquisitions, debt optimisation and other business requirements. We continue to focus on improving ARPU and non-ticketing revenues, including food and beverage, merchandise and experiential offerings, while driving operational efficiencies across our portfolio.

Our objective is to ensure that capital is deployed towards opportunities that offer sustainable long-term returns, while maintaining an appropriate balance between growth, liquidity and financial leverage.

Creating Sustainable Value

We believe the convergence of India's economic growth, rising discretionary consumption, increasing domestic tourism and the growing preference for experiences provides a compelling long-term opportunity for Imagicaaworld.

With a strong and recognised brands under our belt, experienced management team, expanding portfolio and multiple growth platforms, we are confident of building a larger, more diversified and resilient business while delivering memorable experiences to millions of guests.

The Board remains committed to the highest standards of corporate governance, responsible capital allocation, sustainability and stakeholder engagement.

On behalf of the Board, I express my sincere gratitude to our shareholders, employees, guests, business partners and all stakeholders for their continued trust, confidence and support.

Warm regards,

Rajesh Malpani

MANAGING DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Shareholders,

FY2025-26 was a demanding year for your Company. Revenue and profitability were both lower than in the preceding year, the result of a difficult operating season and a deliberate step-up in investment that has yet to earn its return. It was also the year in which we initiated steps which could become consequential in shaping the business in the years to come.

What happened

Few factors weighed on the year, and they were not equal in size.

1. Park volumes were lower. Ticket revenue declined by around 14%, and food and beverage revenue moved with it. An extended monsoon cost us peak operating days, and household spending on discretionary leisure remained subdued for much of the year. Our hotel business, by contrast displayed resilience, and footfalls returned to growth in the final quarter.
2. The government incentive on the Khopoli theme park reached the end of its term in the first quarter. It accounted for a little over a tenth of the revenue decline, a smaller share than is often assumed, but a high-margin one.
3. Costs rose while revenue fell due to above factors. Employee costs and other operating expenses were both higher than in the preceding year. Finance costs rose by roughly three-quarters as we drew down debt to fund acquisitions and expansion – which are essentially long term in nature. That borrowing was a deliberate decision taken with the Board, and it compressed the year's earnings by design; the return on it will be seen in coming years.

A lower revenue line meeting a higher cost base is the arithmetic of the year's earnings. The remedy is correspondingly direct: recover volumes, improve what each guest spends with us, and hold costs while we do so.

What we initiated already

A demanding year on the profit and loss account also marked the Company embarking into newer pastures, embracing newer structures and simultaneously gearing our balance sheet for accelerating our strong geographical expansion plans.

- In Gujarat we recently acquired a 50.002% stake in Shanku's Water Park for ₹50 crore for which we had entered into a non-binding term sheet in January 2026, with a total commitment of up to ₹100 crore, and are rebranding it as Aqua Imagicaa. It brings an established catchment across Ahmedabad, Mehsana and Gandhinagar, and we take operating control

- earning a management fee alongside the equity return, and applying our own systems in guest experience, safety, food and beverage and revenue management.

- Indoor entertainment.. We entered into a landmark partnership with Hello Park, the world's largest chain of immersive, digital-physical play parks for children. This partnership heralds the foray of Imagicaaworld into the Family Entertainment Centre (FEC) category. This is a capital-efficient, weather-independent format suited to large urban markets, and a direct hedge against the seasonality that affected us this year.

- Long-term borrowings rose to fund various capital commitments and to strengthen our existing assets. We are conscious that this raises our interest burden ahead of the earnings they are intended to generate and narrowing that gap is a key priority for the year ahead.

The trade-off was deliberate. We accepted lower reported earnings in order to secure assets and optionality at a point in the cycle when they were available to us. That decision is justified by the returns these can produce, and those returns should begin soon.

Priorities for the year ahead

Our priorities for FY2026-27 are few and specific.

1. Recover footfalls, and grow revenue per guest through food and beverage, merchandise and paid experiences rather than through ticket pricing alone.
2. Hold operating costs while revenue recovers, so that margin is restored rather than merely defended.
3. Complete the integration of Aqua Imagicaa in Gujarat and bring it onto full-fledged Imagicaaworld operating standards.
4. Open our first Hello Park centre and establish the format in the Indian market.
5. Strengthen the balance sheet by reducing net debt relative to earnings, and funding expansions more through internal accruals and partnership structures.

Since the year end

The first quarter of the current year was encouraging. Footfalls, revenue and margins all improved on the same period last year, and a growing share of our guests now book directly with us. Taken together, the year so far supports our view that FY2025-26 was a year of investment rather than a negative business trend.

The longer view

Our ambition is unchanged: to build Imagicaaworld into India's leading pan-India entertainment platform, spanning destination parks, water parks, indoor entertainment and experiential formats. We will expand through a combination of internal accruals, partnership structures and asset-light operating arrangements, and we will commit capital only where the expected return justifies it. Where circumstances require us to change course on a project, we will set out our reasoning.

The demand backdrop for organised leisure in India remains genuinely favourable: a young population, rising incomes, growing domestic tourism, and a clear shift in how households choose to spend. A favourable market, however, is not a substitute for execution. What protects capital is operating discipline, considered capital allocation, and an honest account of each year, whatever that year contains. FY2025-26 asked more of this business than any year in recent memory, and the platform we built through it is stronger than the one we entered it with. Converting that strength into earnings is the task now in front of us.

To our shareholders and our lenders, thank you for your capital and your confidence. To our teams across every park, thank you for the standards you held, through a demanding year. The improvement now under way is yours before it is anyone else's.

Sincerely,

Jai Malpani

IMAGICAA REVIEWS

Fun, Smooth & Worth It!t 🥰

Had a great experience at Imagicaa and would rate it 4/5. The rides were exciting, wait times were minimal (just 5–10 minutes), and carrying the park map helped cover all the major attractions. Arriving early is definitely the best way to make the most of the day. Food at Roberto's was reasonably priced, and there were plenty of spots across the park for drinks and quick snacks. The souvenir shop was also a nice stop before heading out. Highly recommended! ★

Thrills, fun, and unforgettable memories 🥰

The park was clean, spacious, and well-maintained, with helpful and courteous staff throughout. Nitro and Gold Rush were the standout rides, and there were plenty of attractions for kids as well. The buffet offered a good variety of food, making it ideal for a full-day visit.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Global Economic Overview

The global economy faces renewed uncertainty, with the outbreak of conflict in the Middle East in February 2026 posing a significant risk to macroeconomic stability. This development threatens to disrupt the fragile balance achieved over the past year, where persistent headwinds from rising trade barriers and elevated geopolitical uncertainty were partially offset by strong tailwinds.

Key supportive factors included robust technology-led investments, particularly in artificial intelligence (AI), accommodative financial conditions aided by a weaker US dollar, and continued fiscal and monetary policy support across major economies. However, the ongoing conflict introduces a substantial counterforce, primarily through its impact on commodity markets, inflation expectations, and tightening financial conditions.

Global growth is projected to moderate to 3.1% in 2026 and 3.2% in 2027, compared to an estimated 3.4% during 2024–25, reflecting a gradual loss of momentum amid heightened uncertainty.

Downside risks continue to dominate the outlook. Escalation in geopolitical tensions could potentially trigger a severe energy shock, evolving into one of the most significant crises in modern times. Additionally, rising domestic political pressures across key economies may intersect with shifting trade dynamics, amplifying global fragmentation. Trade disputes remain a persistent concern, particularly around critical supply chains such as rare earth elements, which are increasingly becoming strategic points of contention.

Further risks stem from potential reassessment of AI-driven growth expectations. Any moderation in anticipated returns or increased competitive pressures could dampen investment sentiment and lead to financial market corrections. At the same time, rising fiscal deficits and elevated public debt levels amid already constrained fiscal buffers could exert upward pressure on long-term interest rates, tightening overall financial conditions.

On the positive side, sustained momentum in AI investments could enhance productivity and support long-term growth if adoption translates into tangible efficiency gains and business dynamism. Additionally, renewed progress on structural reforms and easing trade tensions could provide further support to global economic activity.

Global inflation is expected to temporarily stall in its disinflationary trajectory, with headline inflation projected to increase from 4.1% in 2025 to 4.4% in 2026, driven largely by commodity price pressures and geopolitical disruptions.

Indian Economic Overview

Amid heightened global trade tensions and a challenging external environment in FY26, India continued to stand out as the fastest-growing major economy, with GDP growth accelerating to 7.6%, up from 7.1% in FY25. The resilience of the domestic economy was supported by strong macroeconomic fundamentals, a sustained reform agenda, and stable domestic demand.

Macroeconomic stability remained robust, with the current account deficit contained at 1.0% of GDP and continued fiscal consolidation bringing the general government deficit to 7.4% of GDP. The labor market also remained steady, with improving formal job creation supporting income growth and consumption.

Looking ahead, the outlook for FY27 reflects emerging global headwinds, particularly from the Middle East conflict. Economic growth is projected to moderate to 6.6%, as rising geopolitical uncertainty and higher energy prices weigh on domestic and external demand.

Elevated global oil and gas prices are expected to increase inflationary pressures, with headline inflation projected to rise by approximately 90 basis points relative to a no-conflict scenario. This could moderately temper private consumption growth, even as structural drivers such as rising disposable incomes and urbanization continue to support discretionary spending over the medium term.

Government consumption is expected to remain calibrated, balancing growth priorities with higher subsidy outlays for essential commodities such as cooking gas and fertilizers. Investment growth may also see some moderation in the near term due to elevated uncertainty, while net exports are expected to soften amid shipping disruptions and weaker demand from key trading partners.

Despite these near-term challenges, India remains relatively well-positioned, supported by strong macroeconomic buffers and proactive policy interventions. Importantly, underlying consumption trends particularly in discretionary and experiential segments remain structurally intact, providing a supportive backdrop for sectors linked to leisure and entertainment.

Strategic Priorities and Outlook

The evolving global environment underscores the importance of:

- Energy diversification, including accelerated transition to renewable sources
- Prudent fiscal management, maintaining a credible consolidation trajectory
- Trade diversification, through effective implementation of FTAs and new partnerships

These priorities will be critical in strengthening India’s resilience in an increasingly fragmented global landscape.

Over the medium term, India’s structural strengths including its reform momentum, demographic advantage, and expanding consumption base are expected to sustain growth and provide a stable foundation for demand-led sectors.

Entertainment Sector in India

India’s entertainment and leisure sector continues to demonstrate structural growth, supported by rising disposable incomes, rapid urbanization, and an increasing preference for experiential consumption. As one of the fastest-growing segments within the broader media and entertainment landscape, the out-of-home entertainment industry including theme parks, water parks, and destination-based experiences is witnessing a steady expansion in demand.

A key structural shift underpinning this growth is the rising share of discretionary spending in household consumption. With a young demographic profile and increasing exposure to global lifestyle trends, Indian consumers are allocating a larger portion of their spending towards leisure, travel, and entertainment experiences. This trend is further reinforced by improved connectivity, digital penetration, and the growing influence of social media in shaping consumption patterns.

Despite macroeconomic headwinds in FY26, including global uncertainty and inflationary pressures, domestic demand for entertainment remained resilient. Footfall recovery across entertainment destinations continued, supported by pent-up demand and a sustained shift towards organized and high-quality experiences. Tier I and Tier II cities alike are emerging as key growth markets, driven by rising affluence and infrastructure development.

However, the sector is not entirely insulated from external risks. Elevated inflation particularly driven by higher energy and food prices can moderate discretionary spending in the near term. Additionally, volatility in travel patterns, driven by geopolitical developments or economic uncertainty, may impact footfall in destination-based entertainment formats.

While near-term growth may be influenced by macroeconomic factors, including inflation and global uncertainties, the medium- to long-term outlook for India’s entertainment sector remains robust. The continued evolution of consumer preferences toward experiences over products, coupled with supportive demographics and policy focus on tourism, is expected to sustain growth momentum.

For organized players, the opportunity lies in scaling destination offerings, enhancing customer experience, and leveraging technology to drive engagement and monetization. As the sector matures, operators with strong brand positioning, diversified offerings, and operational excellence are expected to be well-positioned to capture long-term growth.

Growth of Indoor Amusement Centers in India:

India’s entertainment and leisure landscape is witnessing a structural transformation, driven by rising disposable incomes, rapid urbanization, and a clear shift in consumer preferences toward experiential and out-of-home entertainment. As lifestyles evolve and exposure to global formats increases, consumers particularly younger demographics are allocating a greater share of discretionary spending toward immersive, social, and experience-led activities. Within this context, indoor amusement centres (IACs) have emerged as a compelling and scalable format, offering climate-independent, year-round entertainment within organized retail and urban infrastructure.

The growth of this segment is also being supported by the expansion of malls and mixed-use developments, improved accessibility, and the integration of technology-led attractions that enhance engagement and repeat visitation. Increasingly, indoor amusement centres are positioning themselves not just as entertainment venues, but as holistic family and social destinations, catering to a wide demographic spectrum.

Against this backdrop, India’s indoor amusement industry has expanded significantly in recent years and is currently valued at approximately INR 15,000 crore, according to the report by ANAROCK and IAAPI.

The report highlights a strong shift in consumer behavior, with spending on indoor amusement experiences increasing by 30–40% compared to pre-pandemic levels. This growth is underpinned by higher participation rates, longer dwell times, and the increasing adoption of immersive and technology-enabled entertainment formats. Tier I cities continue to lead in terms of monetization, with 10–15% higher per-customer spending compared to Tier II markets, reflecting stronger purchasing power and deeper engagement levels. Additionally, industry suppliers indicate a 15–20% increase in consumer outlay in recent years, reinforcing the trend toward premiumization within the segment.

From a global perspective, the indoor amusement centre industry was valued at approximately USD 51.3 billion in 2024 and is projected to reach USD 84.0 billion by 2030, growing at a CAGR of around 9%. In comparison, India currently accounts for only ~2% of the global market, highlighting significant headroom for growth as the sector continues to formalize and scale across urban and semi-urban markets.

Pricing dynamics within the industry further reflect its evolving positioning. Nearly 73.6% of operators offer experiences priced between INR 500 and INR 1,499, indicating a clear tilt toward accessible premium entertainment, aligned with India’s evolving consumption patterns.

Children’s Entertainment Centers in India

According to IMARC, India’s children’s entertainment centres market was valued at USD 1.3 billion in 2025 and is projected to reach USD 2.2 billion by 2034, driven by rising demand for indoor recreation, family-oriented leisure, and the growing popularity of themed and edutainment experiences.

Technology-led Experiences Gaining Traction

The rapid adoption of digital technologies such as Virtual Reality (VR) and Augmented Reality (AR) is reshaping the segment. Entertainment centres are increasingly incorporating immersive gaming, interactive simulations, and e-sports zones to enhance engagement. These formats not only provide high-quality entertainment but also offer educational value, making them attractive to both children and parents. As digital exposure increases, demand for tech-enabled, immersive experiences is expected to remain strong.

Shift Towards Themed and Edutainment Formats

There is a clear shift toward theme-based and edutainment-driven offerings, where entertainment is combined with learning and skill development. Centres are integrating activities such as role-play, creative workshops, and interactive storytelling, often built around popular characters and immersive themes. This hybrid “learn + play” model is gaining strong traction among families seeking meaningful engagement for children.

Emergence of Hybrid Indoor-Outdoor Destinations

Hybrid formats combining indoor and outdoor attractions are emerging as a key trend. These integrated destinations offer a mix of VR zones, soft play areas, rides, and open-air experiences, along with food, retail, and celebration spaces. Such formats enhance dwell time, broaden appeal across age groups, and drive repeat visitation, aligning with the growing demand for comprehensive, experience-led family entertainment.

Imagicaa’s Strategic Foray into Indoor Entertainment – Hello Park

In line with these evolving industry dynamics, your company has expanded its footprint into the indoor amusement segment through its foray into Hello Park, a globally recognized indoor entertainment concept. This strategic initiative marks a significant step in diversifying the Company’s offerings beyond destination-based outdoor parks into scalable, asset-light, and all-weather formats.

Furthermore, the scalable nature of the Hello Park model, combined with strong brand recall and operational expertise, positions your company to capitalize on the significant growth opportunity of India’s indoor amusement market.

Parks Industry In India

India’s amusement park industry continues to evolve as a structurally important segment within the broader tourism and experiential entertainment ecosystem, supported by rising discretionary spending, favorable demographics, and increasing preference for destination-led leisure. The industry is estimated at approximately USD 640 million (~₹5,300 crore) in 2025 and is projected to reach ~USD 1.1-1.2 billion by 2033, implying a steady CAGR of around 7–8%. This growth is further reinforced by the formalization of the sector, increasing investments, and the expansion of organized players across formats.

<https://iaapi.org/blog/2025/06/14/indias-amusement-industry-in-2025-has-grown-into-a-structured-highpotential-sector-at-the-heart-of-the-countrys-entertainment-and-tourism-economy-?utm>

A key enabler of this growth is the increasing role of government support, particularly through Public-Private Partnership (PPP) models, which are positioning amusement parks as critical tourism infrastructure assets. Several state governments are actively promoting large-scale entertainment and tourism projects by offering capital subsidies in the range of 15–25%, along with land facilitation, faster regulatory approvals, and infrastructure support under tourism policies. These initiatives are improving project viability, lowering entry barriers for private developers, and accelerating the development of integrated entertainment destinations. The emergence of transit-linked and destination-based developments further strengthens accessibility and enhances the attractiveness of such projects.

The industry continues to be anchored by major metropolitan clusters, which serve as primary demand centers due to higher income levels, population density, and tourism inflows. Regions such as the Mumbai Metropolitan Region and Pune in the West; Bengaluru, Hyderabad, and Chennai in the South; and Delhi NCR in the North account for a significant share of organized amusement infrastructure. These clusters benefit from well-developed connectivity, strong urban consumption, and a high propensity for experiential spending, making them key hubs for both outdoor parks and indoor entertainment formats.

At the same time, a notable structural shift is underway with increasing expansion into Tier II and Tier III cities, which are emerging as high-growth markets. Cities such as Indore, Jaipur, Lucknow, Coimbatore, Visakhapatnam, and Bhubaneswar are witnessing rising affluence, rapid urbanization, and improving infrastructure, creating favorable conditions for new developments. Lower land costs often 60–70% below metro levels and relatively limited competition further enhance the attractiveness of these markets. As a result, new capacity additions across both amusement parks and indoor centres are increasingly being directed toward these emerging urban clusters.

The sector is also benefiting from its integration into India’s broader tourism ecosystem, with amusement parks increasingly acting as anchor attractions for regional tourism development. Major destinations across cities such as Mumbai, Bengaluru, Hyderabad, Chennai, Delhi, and Kolkata attract substantial footfall, including a meaningful share of outstation visitors, thereby contributing to local economic activity and hospitality demand. This positioning as destination assets enhances the long-term sustainability and scalability of the sector.

In parallel, the industry is undergoing a transformation in terms of format and offering, with a clear shift toward integrated and technology-enabled entertainment experiences. Developers are increasingly combining theme parks, water parks, indoor amusement centres, retail, and hospitality within unified destinations to enhance visitor engagement and increase dwell time. The adoption of digital technologies, including virtual and augmented reality, is further elevating the consumer experience, driving repeat visitation and higher per capita spending.

Overall, the Indian amusement park industry remains well-positioned for sustained long-term growth. The combination of strong policy support, expansion into new city clusters, rising consumer demand for experiences, and continued innovation in formats is expected to significantly expand the addressable market. As the sector matures, operators with diversified offerings, strategic location presence, and strong execution capabilities are likely to benefit from the ongoing shift toward organized and experience-led entertainment.

KEY STRENGTHS OF THE COMPANY

The Company’s primary competitive strengths are set out below:

- The Company is uniquely positioned to capitalise on the increasing propensity of Indians to spend on entertainment
Favourable macroeconomic and demographic factors such as economic growth, rising disposable income, a growing young population, an expanding middle class and rapid urbanisation have resulted in the Indian population spending more on entertainment. With the rise in education levels and exposure to international trends, Indian consumers are willing to pay a premium for quality entertainment.

Imagicaa is the only One Stop Entertainment Destination in India, designed to provide a wholesome and ‘value for money’ entertainment option for guests. The Company offers entertainment options for all age groups through a variety of rides and attractions, which the Company believes are comparable to and provide the international standards of experience that leading theme parks and water parks offer globally. Company’s offerings are also customised to Indian tastes. This positions Imagicaa to capitalise on the increasing number of Indian customers spending on good quality entertainment.

- The Company is strategically located in an attractive catchment area
Imagicaa is located off the Mumbai - Pune Expressway. Currently, it attracts guests from Mumbai, Pune and the rest of Maharashtra and Gujarat, which are some of the more economically developed areas in India. Mumbai is well connected to other large cities in India by air, road and rail with multiple flight options in a day. Further, Imagicaa is located in a region that experiences suitable weather throughout the year for spending a day outdoors. In addition, the majority of the rides, attractions and queuing areas in the parks are covered to avoid any inconvenience during the monsoon season.

- Rides and Attractions of International Quality Standards which are customised to Indian tastes and preferences

Imagicaa is attractively themed and aims to deliver high-quality entertainment, aesthetic appeal, shopping and dining options.

The Parks have been designed by internationally acclaimed design consultants. The rides and attractions for the theme park have been designed by and sourced from global industry leaders such as Bolliger & Mabillard Inc., Zamperla Asia Pacific Inc., Sally Industries Inc., E2M Technologies B.V. and Santec Fabricators (India) Private Limited, which is a part of the Sanderson Group. The water slides and equipment in the water park have been sourced from global industry leaders such as Whitewater West Industries Limited, Neptune Benson (Defender Water Filtration Systems) and Polin Dis Tic. Ltd. Sti. The Company also follows high levels of park security and safety standards to offer a safe and injury free environment for its guests to enjoy the parks.

- Competitive advantage through entry barriers

The Company has the opportunity to leverage the ‘first-mover advantage’ through Imagicaa. There are significant barriers to entry in the business of theme and water parks in India and it is difficult to replicate a project of similar scale and size in India. Among the most important of these barriers is the need for significant capital expenditure to set up theme and water parks, the difficulty to identify and purchase large and suitable parcels of land on commercially viable terms and the long lead-time from the conceptualisation to the launch of rides and attractions. The Company believes that its location off the Mumbai - Pune Expressway, the large parcel of land owned by the Company, the rides and attractions of international quality and standards and the qualified management and operations team provide the Company with a significant competitive advantage over any new park. Further with the consolidation of park business owned by the group under single umbrella, will help to optimise the sales and reduce the cost and increase the profitability of the company.

- A well-positioned brand and marketing focus

In the short operational history, the Company has been able to establish strong brand recognition in Mumbai, Pune and the rest of Maharashtra and Gujarat markets.

The Company believes that it has been able to achieve this through a combination of factors:

- Delivering superior visitor experiences in the parks through the diverse offerings of rides and attractions and other entertainment options and thus, developing a brand recall through word of mouth publicity;
- The Company has also actively focused on attracting school groups as the Company believes that school children who visit the parks act as the Company’s brand ambassadors and have the potential of bringing the entire family back on another visit;
- Dynamic and attractive pricing strategy to coincide with various events, festivals, seasons and holidays throughout the year;
- Existing well-established position of the ‘Imagicaa’ brand in the media and entertainment industry; and
- Engaging with various target groups through focused marketing, consisting of regular electronic, print and digital media campaigns and direct sales efforts.
- New Promoters supported by proven and experienced management team
 - Malpani Group is well diversified business house active in Renewable energy, FMCG products, Amusement and Water Park, Real estate, Hotels etc. In the Parks business, the group has experience of more than 18 years in park operations as well as project expertise.
 - Company’s senior management team includes experienced media and entertainment, marketing and consumer businesses executives, with an average tenure of more than 15 years in such industries.
 - The promoter is well settled in the field of Park operations and with the experience they hold; merging of park undertaking operated by various other group Companies or concerns and consolidating the same under single roof will boost the income/ sales and reduce the cost towards common expenditure and will have muscle to expand its foot prints to various other states nationally and internationally.

FINANCIAL RATIOS

The Debtor turnover ratio stood at 46.8 times the average debtors in FY26 from 59.5 times in FY25, this was due to drop in the revenue for FY26. The Inventory turnover ratio was at 18.8 times the average inventory in FY26, compared to 22.8 times the average inventory in FY25. The Interest Coverage ratio for FY26 was 6.4 times, this was at 17.2 times in FY25. The current ratio of the company was at 0.51 times in FY26.

The Operating Profit Margin of the company has dropped from 23.3% in FY25 to 7.5% in FY26 and the Net Profit Margin dropped too from 18.4% in FY25 to 0.2% in FY26, mainly due to drop in revenue of the company. The Debt Equity ratio was at 0.27 times.

OUTLOOK AND OPPORTUNITIES

Post COVID, the demand for experiential outdoor entertainment has been on the rise. Footfall of all major parks have reached pre-pandemic levels. Demand for theme and water parks is expected to increase in India over the next few years driven by increasing disposable income, favourable demographics, changing consumer preferences, growing affinity towards experiences, and a dearth of limited outdoor entertainment activities in cities. The state governments in the country are starting to realize the potential of amusement parks and are working with industry to implement conducive policies. The industry constantly needs to innovate and introduce fresh themes, experiences, as well as focus on stronger marketing strategies to draw larger audience.

Medium & Long Term Business Strategies

The Company is adopting the following business strategies to grow the business in the future:

Expand in newer geographies

The company plans to expand its reach and leverage its brand to newer geographies. In line with this philosophy, the Company has already ventured to a new state – Gujarat and Madhya Pradesh. This year marked the full year operations of Aqua Imagicaa, Water Park, in the city of Indore. Madhya Pradesh is one of the faster growing tourism hubs and the Indore-Ujjain belt has been identified as a corridor of tourism as well as overall economic growth.

Continue to focus on increasing the number of guests hosted at the parks

The Company plans to increase attendance at the parks through the following strategies:

- Increasing awareness of the parks, and ‘Imagicaa’ brand through effective media and marketing campaigns, aimed at various target groups including families, young kids, college students and young professionals. The Company will also continue to reach out to a greater number of schools and corporates for increasing attendance at its parks;
- Offering a variety of ticket options and disciplined pricing and promotional strategies to coincide with events and holidays throughout the year. The Company also aims to follow a dynamic pricing model which will enable us to adjust admission prices for the parks based on expected demand and attract diverse segments of customer base;
- By periodically introducing new attractions, differentiating experiences and enhancing service offerings, the Company believes that word of mouth is the most important marketing tool for our product and, therefore, the Company’s primary business objective is to make the time spent by the guests in its parks as enjoyable as possible. The Company specifically focuses on entrance and security procedures, queue management, cleanliness, quick availability of F&B products and retail merchandise to make the guests’ experiences as comfortable and entertaining as possible; and
- Focusing on sales and marketing initiatives in the secondary catchment areas, such as the print campaign from time to time in major cities like Delhi NCR, Bangalore, Hyderabad and Jaipur, to attract tourists visiting the Mumbai - Pune region.

Diversify our Revenue Streams

Sale of admission tickets comprises a significant portion of the Company’s total income and going forward the Company intends to increase its non-ticketing revenue through the following strategies:

- Focus on F&B and retail & merchandise operations by targeting the per capita spending of guests. The Company believes that by providing guests additional and enhanced offerings at various price points, the Company can increase spending in its parks. The Company will continue to innovate in its F&B offerings to cater to the diverse preferences of its guests.

- Monetise the crowd movement in the parks by offering sponsorship opportunities to advertisers for special events, naming rights for the rides and attractions, partnering in destination advertising and assisting in products and brand activations;
- With the hotel, the Company intends to position Imagicaa as a destination for varying customer requirements, including for entertainment, corporate meetings and off-sites and other social events;
- The Company aims to develop an emotional connect with the guests through its brands and characters developed by the Company, which will provide the opportunities to leverage the intellectual property portfolio, and to develop new media and entertainment options and to increase the sale of consumer products, in and outside Imagicaa.

Increase profitability and achieve cost optimisation

The Company believes that increased attendance at its parks and an increase in the per capita spending will allow the Company to make its business more profitable because of the relatively fixed cost-base and the high operative leverage involved in the business. The Company will continue to focus on F&B and retail and merchandise spending to improve its operating margins. The Company shall continue to offer more dynamic pricing to account for seasonal fluctuations in attendance. The Company also aims to achieve better cost optimisation through economies of scale by measures such as company-wide and centralised procurement and sourcing strategy and integrated marketing campaigns. In addition, the Company aims to benefit from shared services such as security, ticketing, F&B and general administration of the parks.

PARK SECURITY AND SAFETY

The Company was awarded with an ISO certificate for Integrated Management Systems by Bureau of Indian Standards (BIS) for Imagicaa Theme Park. Following is the list of ISO certifications awarded:

- Quality Management System- IS/ISO 9001:2008
- Environmental Management System-IS /ISO 14001:2004
- Occupational Health and Safety Management system – IS 18001:2007

The Company recognises park security and safety as one of its most important focus areas in ensuring the success of the parks. The park security and safety plan is based on three principles: being proactive, the utilisation of an optimum combination of technology and manpower and meeting international standards on security and safety. Some of the key features of the security and safety plan are set out below:

- Security Agency: The Company has engaged one of the leading security solutions providers in India for its security needs and has developed a security plan based on a study of threats and vulnerabilities. The scope of services provided by its security solutions service provider includes the development of, setting up and operating the security infrastructure in the parks, deploying security personnel and carrying out regular training for the employees for security related issues, particularly emergency response situations.
- Identified Perimeters and Zones: Company has divided its parks into various layers with defined perimeters- for effective monitoring and response. The Company has deployed access control measures at the identified entry and exit points to reduce trespassing and monitor crowd movement. The Company has also divided the parks into various zones to facilitate effective emergency response, evacuation and deployment of resources and manpower.
- Command Centre: The Company’s command centre has been planned as an integrated set-up, capable of monitoring and controlling the management of the parks and responding to all circumstances which may have an adverse effect on guest experiences. The functions of the command centre include controlling and monitoring all access controls across the parks, including the entry and exit points and for other rides and attractions; coordinate the response to any situation that requires attention; operate the public address system which is designed for effective communication for functions such as crowd management; Company’s security infrastructure consists of necessary equipments such as metal detectors, explosive vapour and trace detectors,

- radio sets, forced entry resistant door system, panic buttons, hooters and retractable barriers, which have been deployed at vantage points across the parks.
- Safety Procedures: The most important aspect of the safety procedures is regular training and assessment of the ride operators and attendants to prevent accidents or injuries resulting from unsafe acts and conditions. In addition to monitoring for any hazard or unsafe condition, the ride operators carry out inspections at pre-designated intervals and report any unsafe condition to the maintenance department for correction. A detailed inspection and monitoring procedure is followed for some of the critical rides and attractions, such as the roller-coasters. The Company has also engaged qualified lifeguards, who are on duty during the operating hours of the water park.
 - Fire and Medical Emergency Plan: The Company also has a comprehensive fire and medical emergency response plan. The Company has installed smoke and heat detectors in its offices and indoor attractions and water sprinkler and fire hydrant systems and fire extinguishers across the parks. In addition, there is a team of fire-men stationed in the theme park throughout the operational hours. There is a medical centre in the theme park & water park including a five- bed ward, which is staffed by a team of one doctor and eight nurses to respond to any medical emergency in the theme park up to such time that the guests are moved to the nearby hospitals. There are two ambulances which are deployed in the parks throughout the operational hours.

MAINTENANCE

The Company’s maintenance team is responsible for the inspection, upkeep, repairs and testing of the rides and attractions. The Company has appointed a safety officer as a member of each of its parks management team to supervise the maintenance and ride operations teams, and carry out regular audits and surprise inspections.

Every ride and attraction at the parks is inspected regularly, according to daily, weekly, monthly, and annual schedules. The Company has formulated detailed maintenance guidelines and checklists for each of its rides and attractions with the objective of ensuring that the rides and attractions are operating within the manufacturer’s criteria and that maintenance is conducted according to internal standards, industry best practice and standards, as well as the ride designer or manufacturer’s specifications. The Company has installed a networked enterprise software system which is used to plan and track all the maintenance activities. The maintenance system of some of the rides and attractions is also linked over VPN to the respective vendors to ensure effective monitoring, data sharing and resolution of issues, if any. All ride maintenance personnel are trained to perform their duties according to internal training processes, in addition to recognised industry certification programs for maintenance activities. The Company’s infrastructure maintenance function comprises upkeep, repair, preventive maintenance and improvement of the parks infrastructure.

The Company obtains safety certifications from its vendors certifying that the rides and attractions installed at the parks have been designed and manufactured in accordance with international standards such as the American Society for Testing and Materials, or the ASTM standard, the European, or the EN standard or the Deutsches Institut für Normung e.V., or the DIN standard. Company has also engaged TUV SUD South Asia Pvt. Ltd., a leading global technical services organisation to carry out inspection, testing and installations certifications for the rides and attractions. Company also periodically engage the services of third-party maintenance audit agencies to inspect the maintenance procedures.

RISKS

- The business is seasonal in nature, and may be affected by weather conditions, school vacations, public holidays and weekends.
- The theme and water park industry is seasonal in nature. The parks could experience volatility in attendance as a result of school vacations, public holidays, weekends and adverse weather conditions such as excessive heat and monsoons. It is believed that attendance at the theme and water park and revenues from F&B and retail and merchandise operations is, and will continue to be, higher during school vacations, public holidays and weekends. In addition, the water park is expected to generate higher revenues in the summer months. Conversely, the Company may face a reduction in revenues during the monsoon months. Further, unfavourable weather conditions such as forecasts of excessive rainfalls or heat may reduce the attendance at the parks.

- Company’s business and results of operations could be adversely affected by changes in public and consumer tastes or a decline in discretionary consumer spending, consumer confidence and general economic conditions.
- The success of the parks depends substantially on consumer tastes and preferences that can change in often unpredictable ways. The Company must adapt to these changes to meet consumer tastes and preferences. The Company carries out research and analysis before opening new rides and attractions and often invest substantial time and resources to gauge the extent to which these new rides and attractions will earn consumer acceptance. Further, the success depends to a significant extent on discretionary consumer spending, which is heavily influenced by general economic conditions and the availability of disposable income. Actual or perceived difficult economic conditions and inflationary periods may adversely impact park attendance figures, the frequency with which guests choose to visit the parks and guest spending patterns at the parks. Both attendance and total per capita spending at the parks are key drivers of its revenue and profitability, and reductions in either can adversely affect the business and results of operations.
- Incidents or adverse publicity concerning the parks or the theme or the water park industry generally could harm Company’s brands or reputation as well as negatively impact the business.

- The Company’s brands and reputation are among the most important assets. The ability to attract and retain guests depends, in part, upon the external perceptions of the parks, the quality of the parks and services and performance of the operations team. The operation of the parks involves the risk of accidents, contagious, airborne or waterborne diseases and other incidents that may negatively affect guest satisfaction and the perception of the guests in relation to safety, health and security of the parks, which could negatively impact the brands and reputation and the business and results of operations.
- Impact of Epidemics and Pandemics
- The Theme and Amusement park industry has been impacted by the recent pandemic of COVID-19. This is a new risk which has been faced by the industry. The theme park industry operates in a highly crowded environment where physical distancing may be difficult to maintain. The regulators have been targeting this industry for various restrictions, being categorised as a “non-essential” service.

INTERNAL CONTROL SYSTEMS AND THEIR ADEQUACY

The Company has internal controls commensurate with its size. It has also adopted standard operating procedures, policies and process guidelines. These guidelines are well documented with clearly defined authority limits corresponding with the level of responsibility for each functional area. They are designed to ensure that transactions are conducted and authorised within their framework. Further, the Company’s reporting guidelines ensure that transactions are recorded and reported in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. These guidelines are regularly reviewed and updated to meet the expectations of the current business environment. The Company’s Code of Business Conduct lays down ethical standards expected from each of its personnel’s and business associates in their day to- day actions. The Company’s robust internal audit programme which works to conduct a risk-based audit not only tests the adherence to laid down policies and procedures but also suggests improvements in the current processes and systems. The audit program is agreed upon with the Audit Committee. Internal Audit observations and recommendations are reported to the Audit Committee, which monitors the implementation of such recommendations. Company had appointed M/s Kirtane & Pandit LLP as the internal auditor during the financial year 2025-26.

SIGNIFICANT DEVELOPMENT IN HUMAN RESOURCES

People are one of the key and critical success factors for the Company. The Theme Park and Amusement Park industry in India is in the nascent stages. As such to find skilled manpower having experience of the industry is challenging. The company has developed a very strong on-job training and development program, which cuts across the junior team members as well as the middle management layer. The senior technical & engineering team has been trained under supervision of global experts of theme park industry. The Company engaged these experts during the development and initial operations of the Park.

Being located in the outskirts of Mumbai and Pune, the Company needs to ensure that the employees are motivated enough to travel the distance for work. The Company provides employee friendly transport and local stay facilities for the same. Employee satisfaction is a top priority, and the Company ensures that all its employees enjoy a safe, healthy and progressive work environment at all its offices. The Company’s Human Resource team works cohesively with the employees to help them in their personal as well as professional development. The Company has a well-defined Code of Conduct that guides all employees in their interaction with the various stakeholders of the Company. The Company has a unique work-culture based on team building and bonding through cross-job training.

As of March 31, 2026, the total number of permanent employees on the rolls of the Company were 738.

Please indicate material responsible business conduct and sustainability issues pertaining to environmental and social matters that present a risk or an opportunity to your business, rationale for identifying the same, approach to adapt or mitigate the risk along-with its financial implications, as per the following format

Sr. No.	Material issue identified	Indicate whether risk or opportunity (R/O)	Rationale for identifying the risk / opportunity	In case of risk, approach to adapt or mitigate	Financial implications of the risk or opportunity (Indicate positive or negative implications)
1	Customer Experience and Satisfaction	Risk	Customer satisfaction is essential for a theme park and hotel as it drives the reputation of a base level and hence it is a great opportunity for the Company. An unsatisfactory consumer experience may pose a risk to business continuity, while a positive customer experience can ensure enhanced profits and brand reputation. Also, positive guest experiences result in Revisits as well as strong word of mouth opinion which is a powerful tool in drawing more guests as well as reducing marketing costs.	Imagicaa places a strong focus on customer satisfaction, starting from the ticket booking stage and continuing throughout the entire guest journey. 2.	Product Quality and Safety	Risk	Significant efforts are required to keep the rides and theme park safe, including maintenance, safety checks, repair work, and other on-site tasks. Proper precautions shall be taken to ensure that an activity is not treated as safe if risk of several mishaps, fall accidents, fatality and injuries. Additionally, employees can be at risk due to lack of training or experience. If health and safety are not protected, there may be fines and penalties; major events may result in acute injury and potential liabilities due to legal or regulatory actions.	Imagicaa demonstrates a strong commitment to safety through a well-defined and structured safety framework, supported by the achievement of key milestones. The following practices reflect this approach: • Daily safety checks are carried out across all rides and attractions to ensure smooth and secure operations. • All rides are fitted with dual safety harness systems to provide enhanced protection for guests. • The park holds a valid Occupational Health and Safety Management System (OHSMS) certification under ISO 45001:2018. • Trained attendants and fire marshals, equipped with two-way communication devices, are deployed across the premises. • A Permit to Work (PTW) system is effectively implemented and followed in accordance with established protocols. • Only high-quality materials and equipment are used for rides and attractions, with a strict no-compromise approach towards safety. • Stringent adherence is maintained to inward vendor and event policies, both of which incorporate necessary disclaimers. • Annual and quarterly health check-ups are conducted for all employees to support their well-being and optimal performance. • High standards of cleanliness and hygiene are maintained through efficient housekeeping practices. • Continuous horticulture initiatives ensure sufficient greenery, help regulate temperature, and enhance the park's visual appeal. • Integrated Management Systems (IMS), covering Environmental and Safety Management Systems, are implemented across all theme park and water park operations. • Regular safety training sessions are conducted to reinforce a strong safety culture among employees. • Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) is provided to all personnel exposed to residual occupational risks. • The park complies with Form B requirements for backup systems and safety monitoring. • Lightning arresters are installed to reduce risks associated with lightning strikes. • Fire extinguishers are strategically positioned at every ride and attraction for immediate access. • Comprehensive CCTV surveillance is maintained throughout the park to enable continuous monitoring and incident prevention. 				• A public address system is available to broadcast emergency announcements and safety instructions when required. • A fully equipped first aid centre, staffed with qualified medical professionals, is available on-site to manage medical emergencies. • Waste handling personnel are required to consistently use appropriate Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) and undergo thorough training in waste management practices. • An in-house water treatment plant is operated to treat water sourced from dams and external suppliers, ensuring compliance with required quality standards. • A sewage treatment plant is maintained to recycle wastewater, which is reused for horticulture and toilet flushing, supporting water conservation efforts. • Ultraviolet (UV) filtration systems are installed in both the theme park and water park to provide safe and potable drinking water to guests. • Consistent chlorination levels are maintained across all swimming pools to ensure effective disinfection and guest safety. • A rainwater harvesting reservoir is utilized, where collected rainwater is treated and distributed across the water park, theme park, and associated hotel facilities. • E-waste and hazardous waste are properly segregated, collected, and securely stored before being handed over to authorized recycling agencies.
3.	Energy Management	Risk	The hospitality and entertainment parks industry (especially theme parks) is typically energy-intensive, as energy is required to operate the rides, lighting, fireworks and other facilities. Decisions made by a firm regarding the energy intensity of its operations and the sources from which it obtains its energy may vary over time, impact the organization's operating efficiency and risk profile.	Imagicaa continues to strengthen its commitment to sustainability through a range of in-house green initiatives focused on improving operational efficiency and reducing environmental impact: • The Company has implemented energy-efficient measures across its rides and attractions to reduce overall energy consumption. • An open access power agreement has been secured for the procurement of 8 MW of renewable energy from solar and wind sources, which currently meets over 60% of the park's total energy requirements. • As part of its broader energy management approach, the Company has installed electric vehicle (EV) charging stations and motion-sensor lighting systems to enhance energy efficiency and encourage sustainable mobility.	Negative

4	Water and Waste Management	Risk	Typically, waste is generated as part of a company's operations, maintenance of machinery, office administrative work and food discard. Improper waste handling may contribute to air pollution, climate change and various direct and indirect impacts on the ecosystem. It may also cause health and safety risks to personnel exposed to waste. Non-compliance with waste management regulations may lead to the imposing of heavy fines.	In response to the increasing impacts of climate change, Imagicaa has implemented proactive environmental measures to reduce its ecological footprint. These initiatives emphasize efficient solid waste management, water conservation, and the promotion of recycling wherever possible: - Waste is segregated at the source using colour-coded biodegradable bags and bins, classified into dry, wet, and horticultural waste streams. - Clearly labelled and strategically positioned waste bins are placed across the park to encourage responsible disposal by both guests and staff. - Collected waste is systematically transferred to a designated waste segregation yard for further processing. - Wet waste is processed through an Organic Waste Converter (OWC) to produce nutrient-rich compost for horticultural use. - Unsustainable disposal practices such as open dumping, feeding waste to animals, and landfilling are strictly avoided, in line with sustainable waste management principles.	Negative
5	Innovation	Opportunity	The entertainment industry has the potential for unleashing innovation amongst various talents. Product design and innovation can assist theme parks to stay competitive and relevant in an ever-changing market. By embracing new designs paired with technologies, theme parks can tap advantage of new market opportunities and boost customer experience.	Imagicaa's management and promoters actively participate in trade fairs and industry events to engage with manufacturers, innovators, and technology providers, staying abreast of the latest trends and advancements. Additionally, the leadership conducts regular 'think tank' sessions with senior team members and department heads (HODs) to collaboratively generate ideas and explore innovative concepts for implementation across all operational sites.	Positive
6	Employee Well-being, Training and Retention	Risk	Higher employee retention rates compared to good company policies and practices. However, a high attrition rate indicates low employee satisfaction to investors. Ensuring employee well-being can boost employee morale and reduce hiring and onboarding costs.	Imagicaa places significant emphasis on employee well-being and is committed to implementing policies that support and empower its workforce: - Comprehensive group mediclaim insurance is extended to all employees, ensuring access to quality healthcare services. - Regular training and skill development initiatives are conducted to strengthen employee capabilities and support professional growth. - Long-term service and employee loyalty are formally acknowledged and rewarded as a gesture of appreciation. - Flexible working arrangements, including adjustable hours and remote work options, are provided based on the nature of roles and responsibilities. - A structured internal mobility program is in place to enable employees to explore new roles or transition across functions within the organization. Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under Section 143(10) of the Act. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor’s Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (‘ICAI’) together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the Standalone Financial Statements under the provisions of the Act and the Rules made thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the ICAI’s Code of Ethics.

We believe that the audit evidence obtained by us is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Standalone Financial Statements.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the Standalone Financial Statements of the current year. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the Standalone Financial Statements as a whole and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

We have determined the matters described below to be the key audit matters to be communicated in our report. We have fulfilled the responsibilities described in the Auditor’s responsibilities for the audit of the Standalone Financial Statements section of our report, including in relation to these matters.

Accordingly, our audit included the performance of procedures designed to respond to our assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the Standalone Financial Statements. The results of our audit procedures, including the procedures performed to address the matters below, provide the basis for our audit opinion on the accompanying Standalone Financial Statements.

Sr. No.	Key Audit Matters	Auditors Response
1.	Recognition of Deferred Tax Asset. Refer to accounting policy information in Note 2.5 to the Standalone Financial Statements and Note 36 to the Standalone Financial Statements.
	As detailed in Note 36 to the Standalone Financial Statements, the Company had recognized deferred tax asset (DTA) of ₹ 18,000.66 as on March 31, 2026 in the Standalone Financial Statements. The Company assesses its ability to recover the DTA at the end of each reporting period which is based on an assessment of the probability that future taxable income will be available against which the carried forward unused tax losses can be utilised.	In view of the significance of the matter, we applied the following audit procedures in this area to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence. Test of Controls: We obtained an understanding of management’s process and tested the design, implementation, and operating effectiveness of management review controls over the key inputs and assumptions used to produce future projections of taxable profits.

	There is inherent uncertainty involved in forecasting future taxable profits, which determines the extent to which deferred tax assets are, or are not, recognised. There is judgement involved in determining the extent to which it is probable that future profits will arise to utilise the net deferred tax asset. Recognition of deferred tax asset involves the assessment of its recoverability within the permissible time frame requiring a significant estimate of the financial projections, and availability of sufficient future taxable income. In effect we have determined that the recognition of deferred tax assets has a high degree of estimation uncertainty, with a potential range of reasonable outcomes greater than our materiality for the Standalone Financial Statements as a whole. Considering the history of losses, complexity, and judgment involved in the assessment of recovery of deferred tax assets, the matter is considered to be a key audit matter.	Test of details: • Obtained the business projections of future taxable profits estimated by the management of the Company and critically reviewed the key assumptions used therein, including future growth rates and relevant economic and industry estimates, based on their understanding of the business and market factors. • Checked arithmetical accuracy of the computation of future taxable profits and calculation of deferred tax. • Assessed the reasonableness of the period of projections used in the deferred tax asset recoverability assessment in accordance with the time period allowed under the applicable tax laws with respect to utilisation of the said tax losses against future taxable profits. • Verified the computation of Income, related tax, and the impact of open litigations on the tax provision. • Performed necessary procedures to verify the accuracy of amounts disclosed in the financial statements, and adequacy of disclosures made for compliance with applicable Indian Accounting Standards and accounting principles generally accepted in India.
2.	Revenue Recognition Refer to accounting policy information in Note 2.4 to the Standalone Financial Statements and Note 26 to the Standalone Financial Statements
	The revenue recognition policy followed by the Company includes, ticket revenue being recognized at the time when entry tickets are issued to visitors for entry into the amusement park; hotel revenue comprising of room rentals which are recognized when the rooms are occupied and for banquet services when the services have been provided as per the contracts with the customer and sale of items such as, merchandise, that are recognized when the control is transferred to the customers. There is an inherent risk that revenue may be misstated because of fraud, resulting from the pressure local management may fail to achieve performance targets. Revenue is also an important element of how the Company measures its performance. The Company focuses on revenue as a key performance measure, which could create an incentive for revenue to be recognized before control has been transferred.	In view of the significance of the matter, principal audit procedures followed by us in this area to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence. Test of Controls: • Evaluated the design, tested the implementation and operating effectiveness of key internal controls including general IT controls and key IT application controls over recognition of revenue. Test of Details: • Assessed whether the revenue recognition accounting policies are in compliance with the accounting standards. • Performed substantive testing by selecting samples of revenue transactions recorded during the year and verifying the underlying documents. • We carried out analytical procedures on revenue recognised during the year to identify unusual variances • We tested manual journal entries posted to revenue to identify unusual items.

3.	Impairment Assessment of Goodwill related to a Cash Generating Unit (CGU) viz park business acquired and recoverability of investments in and loans given to a subsidiary - Malpani Parks Indore private limited (MPIPL) Refer to accounting policy information in Note 2.8 to the Standalone Financial Statements and Notes 4,5 and 6 to the Standalone Financial Statements.
	The carrying amounts of Goodwill of ₹ 4,125.45 Lakhs arising from past acquisition of park business as at March 31, 2026. The excess of the fair value consideration over the total identified net assets has been recognized as Goodwill in accordance with Ind AS 103. The Company has Investment in a subsidiary company – MPIPL with a carrying value of ₹ 5,500.83 Lakhs as at March 31, 2026. Further, the Company has also provided loans to this subsidiary with a carrying value of ₹ 10,045.10 Lakhs. This subsidiary has been incurring losses. Judgment is required in estimating the recoverable amount of the CGU. The estimation of recoverable amount involves making assumptions regarding the future performance of the CGU, market and economic conditions. Inherent uncertainty is also involved in preparing forecasts, discounted future cash flow projections, terminal value growth rates and in determining an appropriate discount rate. The significance of the amounts involved, the judgement required and the uncertainties inherent in estimating the recoverable amount makes this a key audit matter.	In view of the significance of the matter, we applied the following audit procedures in this area to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence. Test of Controls: - Evaluated the design and tested the operating effectiveness of the internal controls relating to impairment assessment of underlying CGUs. Test of Details: - Evaluated the reasonableness of the Management’s estimates and judgements in corroboration with management enquiry, underlying evidence and past trends. - Evaluated the reasonableness of the valuation methodology and key assumptions used in the assessment. - Tested mathematical accuracy and performed sensitivity analysis of the valuation models. - Evaluated the adequacy of disclosures made in the financial statements.

Information Other than the Standalone Financial Statements and Auditors’ report thereon

The Company’s Management and Board of Directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Annual Report including annexures to the Annual report but does not include the Standalone Financial Statement and our auditors’ report thereon.

Our opinion on the Standalone Financial Statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the Standalone Financial Statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the Standalone Financial Statements or our knowledge obtained during the course of our audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Management and those charged with Governance for the Standalone Financial Statements

The Company’s Management and Board of Directors are responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these Standalone Financial Statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance (including other comprehensive income), cash flows and changes in equity of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Accounting Standards (Ind AS) specified under Section 133 of the Act read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015, as amended and other accounting principles generally accepted in India.

This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the Standalone Financial Statements, the Management and the Board of Directors are responsible for assessing the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Management and the Board of Directors either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Board of Directors is also responsible for overseeing the Company’s financial reporting process.

Auditors’ Responsibilities for the audit of the Standalone Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Standalone Financial Statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors’ report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists.

Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these standalone financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the Standalone Financial Statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under Section 143(3) (i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to the Standalone Financial Statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of Management’s use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor’s report to the related disclosures in the Standalone Financial Statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor’s report. However, future events or conditions may cause the entity to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the Standalone Financial Statements, including the disclosures, and whether the Standalone Financial Statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the Standalone Financial Statements that individually or in aggregate makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the standalone financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work and (ii) to evaluate the effect of identified misstatements in the standalone financial statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the Standalone Financial Statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditors’ report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

- The standalone financial statements are presented in Indian Rupees (‘INR’) which is the Company’s functional currency and all values are rounded to the nearest lakh, except otherwise stated.
- The Standalone financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2026 were approved and authorized for issue by the Board of Directors at its meeting held on May 15, 2026.
- Current and Non-Current Classification:
- The Company presents assets and liabilities in the balance sheet based on current/non-current classification.
- An asset is current when it is:
- Expected to be realised or intended to sold or consumed in normal operating cycle,
 - Held primarily for the purpose of trading,
 - Expected to be realised within twelve months after the reporting period, or
 - Cash or cash equivalent unless restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period.

Notes forming part of the Standalone Financial Statements

All other assets are classified as non-current. Deferred tax assets are classified as non-current.

A liability is current when it is:

- Expected to be settled in normal operating cycle,
- Held primarily for the purpose of trading,
- Due to be settled within twelve months after the reporting period, or
- There is no unconditional right to defer the settlement of the liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period.

All other liabilities are classified as non-current.

2.2 Business Combination (Other than business combinations under common control)

Business combinations are accounted for in accordance with Ind AS 103 – Business Combinations, using the acquisition accounting method. The consideration transferred in the acquisition and the identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed are recognised at fair values on their acquisition date. Goodwill is measured as the excess of the aggregate of the consideration transferred, and fair value of any previous interest held over the net identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed. If those amounts are less than the fair value of the net identifiable assets of the business acquired, the difference is recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in equity as capital reserve provided there is clear evidence of the underlying reasons for classifying the business combination as a bargain purchase. In other cases, the bargain purchase gain is recognised directly in equity as capital reserve.

The Company recognises any non-controlling interest in the acquired entity on an acquisition by-acquisition basis at the non-controlling interest’s proportionate share of the acquired entity’s net identifiable assets. Consideration transferred does not include amounts related to settlement of pre-existing relationships. Such amounts are recognised in the standalone statement of profit and loss.

Goodwill

Goodwill arising in a business combination represents the excess of the fair value of consideration over the identifiable net asset acquired. Goodwill acquired in a business combination is allocated to each of the Cash generating units (CGUs), or groups of CGUs, that is expected to benefit from the acquisition itself or from the synergies of the combination or both. Each unit or group of units to which the goodwill is allocated represents the lowest level within the entity at which the goodwill is monitored for internal management purposes.

Goodwill is tested for impairment annually and whenever there is an indication that the CGU may be impaired. The carrying value of the CGU containing the goodwill is compared to the recoverable amount, which is the higher of value in use and the fair value less costs of disposal. Any impairment is recognised immediately as an expense and is not subsequently. Goodwill is subsequently measured at cost less accumulated impairments, if any.

Business Combinations under Common control

Business combinations involving entities that are controlled by the Company are accounted for using the pooling of interests method as follows:

- 1) The assets and liabilities of the combining entities are reflected at their carrying amounts. The Company has made accounting policy choice to account investment in associates and joint venture at a carrying cost as appearing in the books of acquiree.
- 2) No adjustments are made to reflect fair values, or recognise any new assets or liabilities. Adjustments are only made to harmonise accounting policies.
- 3) The balance of the retained earnings appearing in the financial statements of the transferor is aggregated with the corresponding balance appearing in the financial statements of the transferee or is adjusted against general reserve.

Notes forming part of the Standalone Financial Statements

- 4) The identity of the reserves are preserved and the reserves of the transferor become the reserves of the transferee.
- 5) The difference, if any, between the amounts recorded as share capital issued plus any additional consideration in the form of cash or other assets and the amount of share capital of the transferor is transferred to capital reserve and is presented separately from other capital reserves.
- 6) The financial information in the financial statements in respect of prior periods is restated as if the business combination had occurred from the beginning of the preceding period in the financial statements, irrespective of the actual date of combination. However, where the business combination had occurred after that date, the prior period information is restated only from that date.

2.3 Use of Assumptions, Judgments and Estimates:

The preparation of the standalone financial statements in conformity with Ind AS requires the management to make estimates, judgments and assumptions considered in the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosures of contingent liabilities and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the year. The Management believes that the estimates used in preparation of the standalone financial statements are prudent and reasonable. These estimates, judgments and assumptions have been considered in applying the accounting policies.. The application of accounting policies that require critical accounting estimates involving complex and subjective judgments and the use of assumptions in these standalone financial statements have been disclosed below. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Appropriate changes in estimates are made as management becomes aware of changes in circumstances surrounding the estimates. Changes in estimates are reflected in the standalone financial statements in the period in which changes are made and, if material, their effects are disclosed in the notes to the standalone financial statements.

Critical accounting estimates:

- (a) Impairment of Goodwill:
- In relation to business combinations, judgement is required to be exercised on determining the fair values, identification and measurement of assets acquired and liabilities assumed, in allocation of purchase consideration, in deciding the amortisation policy for goodwill. Judgement is also required to be exercised as regards the manner in which carrying amount of goodwill is likely to be recovered. Goodwill is as a minimum, subjected to annual tests of impairment in line with the accounting policy (Refer Note no 2.2).
- (b) Defined benefit obligations:
- The defined benefit plan are measured at fair value. Fair value determined using actuarial valuations. An actuarial valuation involves making various assumptions that may differ from actual developments in the future. These include the determination of the discount rate, future salary increases, mortality rates and attrition rates. Due to the complexities involved in the valuation and its long-term nature, a defined benefit obligation is highly sensitive to changes in these assumptions. All assumptions are reviewed annually using the best information available with the management.
- (c) Expected Credit Loss:
- The measurement of expected credit losses is a function of the probability of default, loss given default (i.e, the magnitude of the loss if there is a default) and the exposure at default. The Company uses judgement in making these assumptions based on company’s past collection history, existing market conditions, as well as forward looking estimates at the end of each reporting period.

Notes forming part of the Standalone Financial Statements

(d) Impairment of Investment carried at cost:

Investments in subsidiaries are carried at cost and the Company reviews the carrying amount of such investments at each reporting date to assess for indicators of impairment. If any such indication exists, the investment is tested for impairment. Determining whether an asset is impaired requires an estimation of the recoverable amount, which requires the Company to estimate the value in use which base on future cash flows and a suitable discount rate in order to calculate the present value.

(e) Deferred Tax:

Significant judgments are involved in assessing the realizability of deferred tax assets. The ultimate realization of deferred tax assets is dependent upon the generation of future taxable income. Management judgment is required to determine the amount of deferred tax assets that can be recognised, based upon the likely timing and the level of future taxable profits.

(f) Useful lives of Property, Plant and Equipment:

Property, plant and equipment represent a significant proportion of the asset base of the Company. The charge in respect of periodic depreciation is derived after determining an estimate of an asset’s expected useful life and the expected residual value at the end of its life. The useful lives and residual values of Company’s assets are determined by the management at the time the asset is acquired and reviewed periodically. The life is based on historical experience with similar assets as well as anticipation of future events, which may impact their life, such as changes in technology.

(g) Provisions and Contingencies:

In the normal course of business, contingent liabilities arise from litigations and claims. Potential liabilities that are possible but not probable of crystallising or are very difficult to quantify reliably are treated as contingent liabilities. Such contingent liabilities are disclosed in the notes but are not recognised. Potential liabilities that are remote are neither recognized nor disclosed as contingent liability. The management decides whether the matters needs to be classified as ‘remote’, ‘possible’ or ‘probable’ based on expert advice, past judgements, terms of the contract, regulatory provisions etc.

2.4 Revenue Recognition:

The Company generates revenue from providing amusement park services, resort and others. Revenue is recognised when (or as) control of goods or services is transferred to the customer. Revenue is measured at the transaction price, net of discounts and indirect taxes.

Revenue is recognized upon transfer of control of promised products or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration the company expect to receive in exchange for those products or services. The Company measures the revenues at fair value of the consideration received or receivable after taking in to account the amount of any discount or rebates allowed to the customers.

The Company presents revenues net of indirect taxes collected in its statement of profit and loss.

Tickets:

Revenue from sale of entry tickets is recognised at the point in time when the visitor utilises the ticket and the performance obligation (i.e., right of entry) is satisfied.

In revenue arrangements with multiple performance obligations, the Company accounts for individual products and services separately if they are distinct – i.e., if a product or service is separately identifiable from other items in the arrangement and if a customer can benefit from it either on its own or together with other readily available resources. The consideration is allocated between separate products and services in the arrangement based on their stand-alone selling prices.

Notes forming part of the Standalone Financial Statements

Food/Beverages:

Revenue is recognized at the point in time when food/ beverages are supplied or served.

Merchandise:

Sales are recognized upon transfer of control of the goods to the customer.

Room Revenue/Banquet Services:

Revenue is recognized over time as the services are rendered as per the contract with the customer.

Barter transactions:

When goods or services are exchanged or swapped for goods or services which are of a similar nature and value, the exchange is not regarded as a transaction which generates revenue.

When goods are sold or services are rendered in exchange for dissimilar goods or services, the exchange is regarded as a transaction which generates revenue. The revenue is measured at the fair value of the goods or services received, adjusted by the amount of any cash or cash equivalents transferred. When the fair value of the goods or services received cannot be measured reliably, the revenue is measured at the fair value of the goods or services given up, adjusted by the amount of any cash or cash equivalents transferred.

Lease Income:

Lease income is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term as per the requirement of Ind As. 116.

2.5 Taxes on Income:

Taxes on Income comprises of current tax and deferred tax. Current tax and deferred tax are recognized in the Statement of profit and loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognized in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, in which case, the tax expense is also recognized in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

Current Tax:

Current tax for current period is recognized at the amount expected to be paid to the tax authorities, using applicable tax rates as per the provisions of Income Tax Act, 1961. Where there is uncertainty over income tax treatments, the company determines the probability of the income tax authorities accepting each such tax treatment or group of tax treatments in computing the most likely amount or the expected value of the tax treatment when determining taxable profit (tax loss), tax bases, unused tax losses, unused tax credits and tax rates.

Deferred Tax:

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for all temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the standalone financial statements. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are reviewed at each reporting date and are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realized.

Unrecognized deferred tax assets are re-assessed at each reporting date and are recognized to the extent that it has become probable that future taxable profits will allow the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the balance sheet date and are expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect of changes in tax rates on deferred income tax assets and liabilities is recognized as income or expense in the period that includes the enactment or the substantive enactment date. The company recognizes deferred tax asset for the carryforward of unabsorbed depreciation only to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the unused tax losses can be utilised. Other deferred tax assets are recognized to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences and tax losses can be utilized.

Current tax assets and current tax liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to set off the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle the asset and the liability on a net basis. Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to set off assets against liabilities representing current tax and where the deferred tax assets and the deferred tax liabilities relate to taxes on income levied by the same governing taxation laws.

2.6 Property Plant and Equipment and Depreciation:

Property, plant and equipment represent a significant proportion of the asset base of the Company.

The cost of an item of property, plant and equipment is recognized as an asset, if and only if:

- (a) it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the entity; and
- (b) the cost of the item can be measured reliably.

Freehold Land is carried at historical cost. All other items of Property, Plant and Equipment are stated at cost, net of tax/duty credit availed, less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. Direct costs are capitalised until the assets are ready for use and includes freight, duties, taxes and expenses incidental to acquisition and installation. When significant parts of property, plant and equipment are required to be replaced at intervals, the Company derecognizes the replaced part and recognizes the new part with its own associated useful life and it is depreciated accordingly. Likewise, when a major inspection is performed, its cost is recognized in the carrying amount of the plant and equipment if the recognition criteria are satisfied and are depreciated over the period until the next inspection. All other repair and maintenance costs are recognized in the statement of profit and loss as incurred.

Capital work in progress includes cost of property, plant and equipment under installation / under development as at the balance sheet date.

Advances paid towards the acquisition of property, plant and equipment outstanding at each balance sheet date is classified as “Capital Advances” under other non-current assets. Subsequent expenditures relating to property, plant and equipment is capitalized only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with these will flow to the Company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably.

Property, plant and equipment are eliminated from standalone financial statements on disposal. Gains or losses arising from disposal / retirement of property, plant and equipment are recognized in the statement of profit and loss in the year of occurrence.

Right of use assets are depreciated over the shorter period of the lease term and the useful life of the underlying asset. If a lease transfers ownership of the underlying asset or the cost of the right of use asset reflects that the Company expects to exercise a purchase option, the related right of use asset is depreciated over the useful life of the underlying asset.

Depreciation is charged on Straight Line Method (SLM) over the useful life of the assets as specified in Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013 on the basis of technical evaluation. Useful life of the assets is tabulated below.

The assets’ residual values and useful lives are reviewed at each financial year end.

2.7 Intangible Assets and Amortisation:

Intangible assets are recognised at cost of acquisition if it is probable that the future economic benefits that are attributable to the assets will flow to the Company. Intangible assets are carried at cost less accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment losses, if any.

Intangible assets with finite lives are amortised over the estimated useful economic life of the assets by using straight line method and assessed for impairment whenever there is an indication that the intangible asset may be impaired.

Intangible assets are amortized as follows:

Sr. No.	Nature of asset	Estimated Useful Life
1.	Trademarks and Logos	10 Years
2.	Software	3 years to 6 years
3.	Films	10 Years

Gains or losses arising from de - recognition of an intangible asset are measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and are recognized in the statement of profit and loss when the asset is derecognized.

The amortization period and the amortization method for intangible assets with a finite useful life are reviewed at the end of each reporting period.

Notes forming part of the Standalone Financial Statements

2.8 Impairment of Non-Current Assets:

The Company assesses at each balance sheet date whether there is any indication that an asset may be impaired. Such circumstances include, though are not limited to, significant or sustained decline in revenues or earnings and material adverse changes in the economic environment.

An impairment loss is recognised whenever the carrying amount of an asset or its cash generating unit (CGU) exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount of an asset is the greater of its fair value less cost to sell and value in use. To calculate value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market rates and the risk specific to the asset. For an asset that does not generate largely independent cash inflows, the recoverable amount is determined for the CGU to which the asset belongs. Fair value less cost to sell is the best estimate of the amount obtainable from the sale of an asset in an arm’s length transaction between knowledgeable, willing parties, less the cost of disposal. Impairment losses, if any, are recognised in the statement of profit and loss and included in depreciation and amortisation expenses. After impairment (if any), depreciation/ amortisation is provided on the revised carrying amount of the assets over its remaining life.

For assets, an assessment is made at each reporting date to determine whether there is an indication that previously recognised impairment losses no longer exist or have decreased. If such indication exists, the Company estimates the asset’s recoverable amount. A previously recognised impairment loss is reversed only if there has been a change in the assumptions used to determine the asset’s recoverable amount since the last impairment loss was recognised. The reversal is limited so that the carrying amount of the asset does not exceed its recoverable amount, nor exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation, had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset in prior years. Such reversal is recognised in the statement of profit and loss unless the asset is carried at a revalued amount, in which case, the reversal is treated as a revaluation increase.

2.9 Inventories:

Inventories are valued at lower of cost and net realizable value after providing for obsolescence and other losses, where considered necessary.

Cost of Inventories are determined on Weighted Average Basis. The cost of inventories have been computed to include all cost of purchases, cost of conversion and other related costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition.

Net realizable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

Goods and materials in transit are valued at actual cost incurred up to the date of balance sheet.

2.10 Non-current assets held for sale:

Non-current assets are classified as held for sale if their carrying amounts will be recovered principally through a sale transaction rather than through continuing use. Non-current assets classified as held for sale are measured at the lower of their carrying amount and fair value less costs of disposal. This condition is regarded as met only when the sale is highly probable, the asset is available for immediate sale in its present condition, the management is committed to the plan to sell the assets and the sale expected to be generally completed within one year from the date of classification.

The Company does not depreciate or amortise a non-current asset upon it is classified as held for sale.

2.11 Financial instruments

(i) Financial Assets:

Financial assets (other than trade receivables) are recognised when the Company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instruments.

Notes forming part of the Standalone Financial Statements

Initial recognition and measurement:

All financial assets are recognised initially at fair value plus transaction costs that are attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset except in the case of financial assets recorded at fair value through Profit and Loss. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets at fair value through statement of profit or loss are recognised immediately in the statement of profit or loss. However, trade receivable that do not contain a significant financing component are measured at transaction price.

Financial assets are classified, at initial recognition, as financial assets measured at fair value or as financial assets measured at amortised cost.

Subsequent measurement:

For purposes of subsequent measurement financial assets are classified in two broad categories:

- Financial assets at fair value
- Financial assets at amortised cost

Where assets are measured at fair value, gains and losses are either recognised entirely in the statement of profit and loss (i.e. fair value through profit or loss) or recognised in other comprehensive income (i.e. fair value through other comprehensive income).

A financial asset that meets the following two conditions is measured at amortised cost (net of any write down for impairment) unless the asset is designated at fair value through profit or loss under the fair value option.

- Business model test: The objective of the Company’s business model is to hold the financial asset to collect the contractual cash flows (rather than to sell the instrument prior to its contractual maturity to realise its fair value changes).
- Cash flow characteristics test: The contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

A financial asset that meets the following two conditions is measured at fair value through other comprehensive income unless the asset is designated at fair value through profit or loss under the fair value option.

- Business model test: The financial asset is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets.
- Cash flow characteristics test: The contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

Even if an instrument meets the two requirements to be measured at amortised cost or fair value through other comprehensive income, a financial asset is measured at fair value through profit or loss if doing so eliminates or significantly reduces a measurement or recognition inconsistency (sometimes referred to as an ‘accounting mismatch’) that would otherwise arise from measuring assets or liabilities or recognising the gains and losses on them on different bases.

All other financial asset is measured at fair value through profit or loss.

All equity investments are measured at fair value in the balance sheet, with value changes recognised in the statement of profit and loss, except for those equity investments for which the entity has elected to present value changes in ‘other comprehensive income’.

If an equity investment is not held for trading, an irrevocable election is made at initial recognition to measure it at fair value through other comprehensive income with only dividend income recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

Notes forming part of the Standalone Financial Statements

De - recognition:

A financial asset (or, where applicable, a part of a financial asset or part of a group of similar financial assets) is primarily derecognised (i.e. removed from the Company’s statement of financial position) when:

- The rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired, or
 - The Company has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from the asset or has assumed an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without material delay to a third party under a ‘pass-through’ arrangement and either
- (a) the Company has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset,
- OR
- (b) the Company has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset.

Investment in subsidiaries:

The Company has accounted for its investment in subsidiaries at cost and the same are tested for impairment in case of any indication of impairment.

(ii) Financial liabilities and equity instruments:

Classification as debt or equity:

Financial liabilities, debts and equity instruments issued by the Company are classified according to the substance of the contractual arrangements entered into and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument.

(a) Equity instruments:

An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of the Company after deducting all of its liabilities. Equity instruments are recorded at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs.

(b) Financial Liabilities:

All financial liabilities are measured subsequently at amortised cost using the effective interest method or at fair value through profit or loss.

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss:

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss include financial liabilities held for trading or financial liabilities designated upon initial recognition as at fair value through profit or loss.

Financial liabilities are classified as held for trading if they are incurred for the purpose of repurchasing in the near term. This category also includes derivative financial instruments entered into by the Company that are not designated as hedging instruments in hedge relationships as defined by Ind AS 109. Separated embedded derivatives are also classified as held for trading unless they are designated as effective hedging instruments.

Gains or losses on liabilities held for trading are recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

Financial liabilities designated upon initial recognition at fair value through profit or loss are designated at the initial date of recognition, and only if the criteria in Ind AS 109 are satisfied.

Loans and borrowings:

After initial recognition, interest-bearing loans and borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the Effective Interest Rate (EIR) method.

Notes forming part of the Standalone Financial Statements

Gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss when the liabilities are derecognised as well as through the EIR amortisation process.

Amortised cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortisation is included as finance costs in the statement of profit and loss.

De - recognition:

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognized in the statement of profit and loss.

Offsetting of Financial Instruments:

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the balance sheet if there is a currently enforceable legal right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis, to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously

2.12 Impairment of Financial Asset:

In case of trade receivables i.e. an unconditional contractual right to receive cash or another financial asset, the Company follows a simplified approach wherein an amount equal to lifetime Expected Credit Loss (ECL) is measured and recognised as loss allowance.

In case of financial assets other than investment in subsidiaries and trade receivables, contract assets, the Company determines if there has been a significant increase in credit risk of the financial asset since initial recognition. If the credit risk of such assets has not increased significantly, an amount equal to 12-month ECL is measured and recognised as loss allowance. However, if credit risk has increased significantly, an amount equal to lifetime ECL is measured and recognised as loss allowance.

Subsequently, if the credit quality of the financial asset improves such that there is no longer a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, the Company reverts to recognising impairment loss allowance based on 12-month ECL.

ECL represents the difference between all contractual cash flows due to the Company in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the entity expects to receive (i.e., all cash shortfalls), discounted at the original effective interest rate.

Lifetime ECL are the expected credit losses resulting from all possible default events over the expected life of a financial asset. 12-month ECL represents the portion of the lifetime ECL which result from default events that are possible within 12 months from the reporting date.

ECL are measured in a manner that they reflect unbiased and probability weighted amounts determined by a range of outcomes, taking into account the time value of money and other reasonable information available as a result of past events, current conditions and forecasts of future economic conditions.

2.13 Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets:

A provision is recognized if, as a result of a past event, the Company has a present legal or constructive obligation that is reasonably estimable, and it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation. Provisions are determined based on the best estimate required to settle the obligation at the balance sheet date.

Contingent liabilities are disclosed when there is a possible obligation arising from past events, the existence of which will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within

the control of the Company or a present obligation that arises from past events where it is either not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation or a reliable estimate of the amount cannot be made

Contingent assets are not recognised in standalone financial statements since this may result in the recognition of income that may never be realised. However, when the realisation of income is virtually certain, then the related asset is not a contingent asset and its recognition is appropriate.

2.14 Foreign Currency Transactions:

Functional currency:

The functional currency of the Company is Indian National Rupees ('INR'/₹/Rs.). These standalone financial statements are presented in Indian Rupees and all values are rounded to the nearest Lakh, except otherwise indicated.

Transactions and translations:

Foreign-currency denominated monetary assets and liabilities are translated into the functional currency at exchange rates in effect at the balance sheet date. Gains and losses, if any, at the year-end in respect of monetary assets and monetary liabilities not covered by the forward contracts are recognised in Statement of Profit & Loss Account. Transaction gains or losses realized upon settlement of foreign currency transactions are included in determining net profit for the period in which the transaction is settled.

Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are not retranslated.

2.15 Borrowing Cost:

Borrowing costs that are attributable to acquisition and construction of qualifying assets are capitalized till the asset is ready for its intended use, based on borrowings incurred specifically for financing the asset or the weighted average rate of all other borrowings, if no specific borrowings have been incurred for the asset. A qualifying asset is one that necessarily takes substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use.

All other borrowing costs are recognized as expenditure in the year in which they are incurred.

Income earned on temporary investment made out of the borrowings pending utilization for expenditure on the qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs eligible for capitalization.

Capitalization of borrowing costs ceases when substantially all the activities necessary to prepare the qualifying assets for their intended use are complete.

2.16 Earnings per equity share:

Basic earnings per share:

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing:

- the profit attributable to equity shareholders of the Company
- by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the financial year, adjusted for bonus elements in equity shares issued during the year and excluding treasury shares, if any.

Diluted earnings per share:

Diluted earnings per share is calculated by adjusting the profit attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding to reflect the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

In calculating diluted EPS:

- the profit attributable to equity shareholders is adjusted for the after tax effects of dividend, interest and other charges to income or expense associated with dilutive potential equity shares, and
- The weighted average number of equity shares is increased by the weighted average number of additional equity shares that would have been outstanding assuming the conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares.

Notes forming part of the Standalone Financial Statements

The dilutive potential equity shares are adjusted for the proceeds receivable had the equity shares been actually issued at fair value (i.e. the average market value of the outstanding equity shares). Dilutive potential equity shares are deemed to be converted as at the beginning of the period, unless issued at a later date. Dilutive potential equity shares are determined independently for each period presented.

The number of equity shares and potentially dilutive equity shares are adjusted retrospectively for all periods presented for any share splits and bonus shares issues including for changes effected

2.17 Employee Benefits:

Short Term benefits:

Benefits such as salaries, wages, performance incentives etc., and the expected cost of bonus, ex-gratia are recognised during the period in which the employee renders related service.

Liabilities recognized in respect of short term benefits are measured at the undiscounted amount of the benefit expected to be paid in exchange for the related services.

Post employment benefits:

The company operates the following post employment schemes:

Defined Contribution plans such as provident fund, superannuation, pension, employee state insurance scheme

- Payments to defined contribution retirement benefit plans are recognised as an expense when employees have rendered the service entitling them to the contribution.

Defined Benefit plans such as provident fund and Gratuity

The cost of providing benefits under the defined benefit plan is determined using the projected unit credit method with actuarial valuations being carried out at each balance sheet date, which recognises each period of service as giving rise to additional unit of employee benefit entitlement and measure each unit separately to build up the final obligation.

Net interest is calculated by applying the discount rate to the net defined benefit liability or asset.

The Company recognises the following changes in the net defined benefit obligation under employee benefit expenses in the statement of profit and loss.

- Service costs comprising current service costs, past-service costs, gains and losses on curtailments and non-routine settlements,
- Net interest expense or income.

Remeasurements, comprising of actuarial gains and losses, the effect of the asset ceiling, excluding amounts included in net interest on the net defined benefit liability and the return on plan assets (excluding amounts included in net interest on the net defined benefit liability), are recognised immediately in the balance sheet with a corresponding debit or credit to retained earnings through other comprehensive income in the period in which they occur. Remeasurements are not reclassified to the statement of profit and loss in subsequent periods.

Other Long-term employee benefits:

Compensated absences which are not expected to occur wholly within twelve months after the end of the period in which the employee renders the related services are recognised as a liability using the projected unit credit method with actuarial valuation carried out at the balance sheet date.

Termination benefits:

Termination benefits are recognised as an expense in the period in which they are incurred.

Notes forming part of the Standalone Financial Statements

Employee Share based payment:

The Company operates equity settled share based plan for the employees. The fair value of equity settled share options based on shares of the Company is initially measured at grant date and is charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss over the vesting period, which is the period over which all of the specified vesting conditions are satisfied, and with a corresponding increase in equity. The fair value excludes the effect of non market based vesting conditions.

2.18 Cash Flow Statement:

Cash flows are reported using the indirect method, whereby profit for the period is adjusted for the effects of transactions of a non-cash nature, deferrals or accruals of past or future operating cash receipts or payments and item of income or expenses associated with investing or financing cash flows. The cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities of the Company are segregated.

2.19 Cash and Cash Equivalents:

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand and demand deposits with banks which are short-term, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash and which are subject to insignificant risk of changes in value.

2.20 Short-term leases and leases of low-value assets:

The Company has elected not to recognise right of use assets and lease liabilities for short term leases that have a lease term of less than or equal to 12 months with no purchase option and assets with low value leases. The Company recognises the lease payments associated with these leases as an expense in statement of profit and loss over the lease term.

2.21 Government grants:

Government grants are recognized where there is reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and all attached conditions will be complied with.

Grants relating to expenses are recognized as income on a systematic basis over the periods that the related costs, for which it is intended to compensate, are incurred.

Grants relating to assets are recognized as income over the expected useful life of the related asset on a systematic basis.

2.22 Exceptional Items:

Certain occasions, the size, type or incidence of an item of income or expense that are material, pertaining to the ordinary activities of the Company is such that its disclosure relevant to explain the performance of the Company, such income or expense is disclosed separately as an exceptional item.

2.23 Segment reporting:

The Board of Directors of the Company has been identified as the Chief Operating Decision Maker (CODM) as defined by Ind AS 108, “Operating Segments. Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the CODM.

The accounting policies adopted for segment reporting are in conformity with the accounting policies adopted for the Company. Revenue and expenses have been identified to segments on the basis of their relationship to the operating activities of the segment. Income/Costs which relate to the Company as a whole and are not allocable to segments on a reasonable basis, have been included under Unallocated Income/Costs. Interest income and expense are not allocated to respective segments (except in case of Financial Services segment).

In accordance with Ind AS 108 ‘Operating Segments’, segment information has been given in the consolidated financial statements of the Company, which are presented in the same annual report and therefore, no separate disclosure on segment information is given in these Standalone financial statements.

Notes forming part of the Standalone Financial Statements

2.24 Trade receivables:

Trade receivables are amounts of consideration that is unconditional due from customers (i.e., only the passage of time is required before payment of the consideration is due) for goods sold or services performed in the ordinary course of business. They are generally due for settlement within one year and therefore are all classified as current. Where the settlement is due after one year, they are classified as non-current. Trade receivables are recognised initially at the amount of consideration that is unconditional unless they contain significant financing components, in which case they are recognised at fair value. The Company holds the trade receivables with the objective to collect the contractual cash flows and therefore measures them subsequently at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

Provision towards dividend payable is made when the amount of any dividend declared, is appropriately authorised and no longer at the discretion of the entity, on or before the end of the reporting period but not distributed at the end of the reporting period.

2.25 New and amended standards:

The Company applied for the first-time certain standards and amendments, which are effective for annual periods beginning on or after April 1, 2025. The Company has not early adopted any standard, interpretation or amendment that has been issued but is not yet effective.

In May 2025, MCA notified amendments to Ind AS 21 - The Effects of Changes in Foreign Exchange Rates, applicable w.e.f. April 1, 2025. The Company has reviewed the amendment and based on its evaluation has determined that it does not have any significant impact in its financial statements.

In August 2025, MCA notified the following amendments to:

- 1. Ind AS 7, Statement of Cash Flows and Ind AS 107, Financial Instruments - Disclosures, applicable w.e.f April 1, 2025 – The amendment in Ind AS 7 requires to inform users of financial statements of the existence of supplier finance arrangements and explain the nature of the arrangements, the carrying amount of liabilities and the range of payment due dates. Ind AS 107 has been amended to add supplier finance arrangements as a factor that may cause concentration of liquidity risk. The Company has reviewed the amendment and based on its evaluation has determined that it does not have any significant impact in its financial statements.
- 2. Ind AS 12, International Tax Reform – Pillar Two Model Rules applicable immediately - The amendments provide a temporary mandatory relief from deferred tax accounting for top-up tax and disclose that they have applied the relief. This relief is immediate and applies retrospectively. The amendments also require companies to provide new disclosures to compensate for potential loss of information resulting from the relief. Such disclosures are to be provided for annual reporting periods beginning on or after April 1, 2025. The Company has no impact of these amendments.

2.26 Standards issued but not effective:

There are no standards that are notified and not yet effective as on the date.

Critical Management judgements and Accounting Estimates

Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-current and Non-current Liabilities with Covenants – Amendments to Ind AS 1- The amendments clarify that lender waivers obtained after the reporting date cannot be considered for the purpose of classifying liabilities as current or non current and require retrospective application in accordance with Ind AS 8. These amendments are effective for reporting periods beginning on or after April 1, 2026. The Company does not expect any impact on its financial statements.

NOTE 44:Fair Value Measurement

Financial Instrument by category and hierarchy

The fair values of the financial assets and liabilities are included at the amount at which the instrument could be exchanged in a current transaction between willing parties, other than in a forced or liquidation sale.

The following methods and assumptions were used to estimate the fair values

Fair value of cash and short-term deposits, trade and other short-term receivables, trade payables, other current liabilities, short term loans from banks and other financial institutions approximate their carrying amounts largely due to short term maturities of these instruments.

Financial instruments with fixed and variable interest rates are evaluated by the Company based on parameters such as interest rates and individual credit worthiness of the counterparty. Based on this evaluation, allowances are taken to account for expected losses of these receivables. Accordingly, fair value of such instruments is not materially different from their carrying amounts.

The fair value of an asset or a liability is measured using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, assuming that market participants act in their economic best interest.

The Company uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximizing the use of relevant observable inputs and minimizing the use of unobservable inputs

The fair values for Non-Current borrowings, loans and security deposits were calculated based on cash flows discounted using a current lending rate. They are classified as level 3 fair values in the fair value hierarchy due to the inclusion of unobservable inputs including counter party credit risk

The Company uses the following hierarchy for determining and disclosing the fair value of financial instruments by valuation technique:

Level 1: quoted (unadjusted) prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities

Level 2: other techniques for which all inputs which have a significant effect on the recorded fair value are observable, either directly or indirectly.

Level 3: techniques which use inputs that have a significant effect on the recorded fair value that are not based on observable market data

Total Liabilities	485.50
Total Identified Net Assets	58,812.97
Goodwill	4,125.45

Till March 31, 2026 the Company has paid ₹ 52,938.42 Lakhs out of the total purchase consideration of ₹ 62,938.42 Lakhs as per the schedule of payment agreed. The balance consideration of ₹ 10,000 Lakhs is payable as per agreed terms by Oct, 2026.

The Company performed its annual impairment test in March, 2026. The Company analyses both quantitative and qualitative triggers that may indicate that a CGU is impaired. Qualitative indicators include significant adverse changes in expected footfall and sales values, power prices and changes in regulations. The Company also considers the relationship between its market capitalisation and its book value, among other factors, when reviewing for indicators of impairment.

The recoverable amount of each cash generating unit is the higher of the cash-generating unit’s fair value less cost of disposal (‘Fair Value’) and its value-in-use. Discounted cash flow models are applied to determine the fair value. Key assumptions used are footfall, sales prices and volumes and discount rates. A range of important assumptions used in the impairment assessment are to large extent determined at the Company level in relation with the budget and strategic forecast process.

The projections cover a period of five years, as the Company believes this to be the most appropriate timescale over which to review and consider annual performances before applying a terminal value multiple to the final year cash flows. The growth rates and segmental margins used to estimate cash flows for the first five years are based on past industry performance, and on the Company’s five-year strategic plan.

Following key assumptions were considered while performing impairment testing:

Particulars	As at 31st March, 2026	As at 31st March, 2025
Average Annual Growth rate for 5 years	10%	10%
Terminal Growth Rate	3%	3%
Weighted Average Cost of Capital (WACC) post tax (Discount rate)	10.50%	10.90%

The Company has performed sensitivity analysis around the base assumptions and has concluded that there are no reasonably possible changes to key assumptions that would cause the carrying amount to exceed its recoverable amount.

Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditors’ responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group, in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the consolidated financial statements under the provisions of the Act and Rules made thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the ICAI’s Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence obtained by us and audit evidence obtained by other auditors in terms of their reports referred to in “Other Matters” paragraph below, is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the consolidated financial statements.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. We have determined the matters described below to be the key audit matters to be communicated in our report. We have fulfilled the responsibilities described in the Auditor’s responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements section of our report, including in relation to these matters.

Accordingly, our audit included the performance of procedures designed to respond to our assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements. The results of our audit procedures, including the procedures performed to address the matters below, provide the basis for our audit opinion on the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

Sr. No.	Key Audit Matters	Auditors’ Response
1	Recognition of Deferred Tax Asset Refer to accounting policy information in Note 2.5 to the consolidated financial statements and Note 36 to the consolidated financial statements.
	The group recognized net deferred tax assets as at March 31, 2026 of ₹ 18,000.66 Lakhs as detailed in Note 36 to the consolidated financial statements. The group assesses its ability to recover the DTA at the end of each reporting period which is based on an assessment of the probability that future taxable income will be available against which the carried forward unused tax losses / depreciation can be utilised.	In view of the significance of the matter, we applied the following audit procedures in this area to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence. Test of Controls: We obtained an understanding of management’s process and tested the design, implementation, and operating effectiveness of management review controls over the key inputs and assumptions used to produce future projections of taxable profits.

	There is inherent uncertainty involved in forecasting future taxable profits, which determines the extent to which deferred tax assets are, or are not, recognised. There is judgement involved in determining the extent to which it is probable that future profits will arise to utilise the net deferred tax asset. Recognition of deferred tax asset involves the assessment of its recoverability within the permissible time frame requiring a significant estimate of the financial projections, and availability of sufficient future taxable income. In effect we have determined that the recognition of deferred tax assets has a high degree of estimation uncertainty, with a potential range of reasonable outcomes greater than our materiality for the Consolidated financial statements as a whole. Considering the history of losses, complexity, and judgment involved in the assessment of recovery of deferred tax assets, the matter is considered to be a key audit matter.	Test of details: ➤ Obtained the business projections of future taxable profits estimated by the management of the Company and subsidiary company and critically reviewed the key assumptions used therein, including future growth rates and relevant economic and industry estimates, based on their understanding of the business and market factors. ➤ Checked arithmetical accuracy of the computation of future taxable profits and calculation of deferred tax. ➤ Assessed the reasonableness of the period of projections used in the deferred tax asset recoverability assessment in accordance with the time period allowed under the applicable tax laws with respect to utilisation of the said tax losses against future taxable profits ➤ Verified the computation of Income, related tax, and the impact of open litigations on the tax provision. ➤ Performed necessary procedures to verify the accuracy of amounts disclosed in the financial statements, and adequacy of disclosures made by the group for compliance with applicable Indian Accounting Standards and accounting principles generally accepted in India. ➤ Discussed with the auditor of subsidiary company to understand the nature, timing and extent of their audit procedures and conclusions with respect to deferred tax assets. ➤ Evaluated the appropriateness of the accounting policy adopted by the subsidiary company in respect of recognition of deferred tax assets in accordance with Ind AS 12, Income Tax
	Refer to accounting policy information in Note 2.4 to the consolidated financial statements and Note 26 to the consolidated financial statements.
	The revenue recognition policy followed by the group includes, ticket revenue being recognized at the time when entry tickets are issued to visitors for entry into the amusement park; hotel revenue comprising of room rentals which are recognized upon rendering of services and sale of items such as, merchandise, that are recognized when the control is transferred to the customers. There is an inherent risk that revenue may be misstated because of fraud, resulting from the pressure local management may feel to achieve performance targets. Revenue is also an important element of how the group measures its performance.	n view of the significance of the matter, principal audit procedures followed by us in this area to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence. Test of Controls: • Evaluated the design, tested the implementation and operating effectiveness of key internal controls including general IT controls and key IT application controls over recognition of revenue. Test of Details: • Assessed whether the revenue recognition accounting policies are in compliance with the accounting standards. • Performed substantive testing by selecting samples of revenue transactions recorded during the year and verifying the underlying documents.

	The group focuses on revenue as a key performance measure, which could create an incentive for revenue to be recognized before control has been transferred.	• We carried out analytical procedures on revenue recognised during the year to identify unusual variances • We tested manual journal entries posted to revenue to identify unusual items • Discussed with the auditor of subsidiary company to understand the nature, timing and extent of their audit procedures and conclusions with respect to revenue.
3.	Impairment Assessment of Goodwill related to a Cash Generating Unit (CGU) viz park business acquired and Property plant and Equipment related to certain park
	Refer to accounting policy information in Note 2.8 to the consolidated financial statements and Notes 3 and 4 to the consolidated financial statements.
	The carrying amounts of Goodwill of ₹ 4,125.45 Lakhs arising from past acquisition of park business as at March 31, 2026. The excess of the fair value consideration over the total identified net assets has been recognized as Goodwill in accordance with Ind AS 103. The Company has Property plant & equipment at Indore location with a carrying value of ₹ 5,500.83 Lakhs as at March 31, 2026. Judgment is required in estimating the recoverable amount of the CGU. The estimation of recoverable amount involves making assumptions regarding the future performance of the CGU, market and economic conditions. Inherent uncertainty is also involved in preparing forecasts, discounted future cash flow projections, terminal value growth rates and in determining an appropriate discount rate. The significance of the amounts involved, the judgement required and the uncertainties inherent in estimating the recoverable amount makes this a key audit matter.	In view of the significance of the matter, we applied the following audit procedures in this area to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence. Test of Controls: • Evaluated the design and tested the operating effectiveness of the internal controls relating to impairment assessment of underlying CGUs. Test of Details: • Evaluated the reasonableness of the Management’s estimates and judgements in corroboration with management enquiry, underlying evidence and past trends. • Evaluated the reasonableness of the valuation methodology and key assumptions used in the assessment. • Tested mathematical accuracy and performed sensitivity analysis of the valuation models. • Evaluated the adequacy of disclosures made in the financial statements.

Information other than the consolidated financial statements and auditor’s report thereon

The Holding Company’s Board of Directors is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Annual Report, but does not include the consolidated financial statements and our auditor’s report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information, and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements, or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of management and those charged with governance for the consolidated financial statements

The Holding Company’s Management and Board of Directors are responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Act with respect to preparation of these consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position, consolidated financial performance including other comprehensive income, consolidated changes in equity and the consolidated cash flows of the Group in accordance with the Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) prescribed under section 133 of the Act read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards)

Rules, 2015, as amended and other accounting principles generally accepted in India.

The respective Management and Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group are responsible for maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of their respective companies and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, which have been used for the purpose of preparation of the consolidated financial statements by the Management and Board of Directors of the Holding Company, as aforesaid.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the respective Management and Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group are responsible for assessing the ability of the respective entities to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the respective Board of Directors either intends to liquidate their respective entities or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group are responsible for overseeing the financial reporting process of their respective companies.

Auditor’s responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole, are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors’ report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal financial control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Holding Company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Management and Board of Directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management and Board of Directors use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the ability of the Group to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditors’ report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditors’ report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audit of the financial statements of such entities included in the consolidated financial statements of which we are the independent auditors. For the other entities included in the consolidated financial statements, which have been audited by other auditors, such other auditors remain responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audits carried out by them. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the consolidated financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the consolidated financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the consolidated financial statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance of the Holding Company of which we are the independent auditors regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditors’ report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

ANNEXURE A TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITORS’ REPORT
(Referred to in paragraph 1A(g) under the heading ‘Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements’ of our report of even date)

Report on the Internal Financial Controls with reference to consolidated financial statements under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 (“the Act”)

In conjunction with our audit of the consolidated financial statements of Imagicaaworld Entertainment Limited (hereinafter referred to as “the Holding Company”) as of and for the year ended March 31, 2026 we have audited the internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements of the Holding Company and its subsidiaries (the Holding Company and its subsidiaries together referred to as “the Group”) as of that date.

Management and Board of Directors’ responsibility for internal financial controls

The respective Management and Board of Directors of the Holding Company and its subsidiary companies are responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls with reference to the financial statements based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the respective companies considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (“the ICAI”). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to the respective company’s policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Act.

Auditor’s responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the internal financial controls of the Group with reference to consolidated financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the ICAI (the “Guidance Note”) and the Standards on Auditing prescribed under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor’s judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence obtained by us and the audit evidence obtained by the other auditors of the subsidiary companies in terms of their reports referred to in the Other Matters paragraph below, is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements.

Meaning of internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements

A company’s internal financial control with reference to consolidated financial statements is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company’s internal financial control with reference to consolidated financial statements includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company’s assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent limitations of internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting with reference to consolidated financial statements may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us and based on consideration of reporting of the other auditors as mentioned in the Other Matters paragraph below, the Group have broadly, in all material respects, adequate internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements and such internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements were operating effectively as at March 31, 2026 based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the respective companies considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the ICAI.

Other Matters

Our aforesaid report under Section 143(3)(i) of the Act on the adequacy and operating effectiveness of the internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements, insofar as it relates to 2 subsidiary companies, is based on the corresponding reports of the auditors of respective subsidiaries.

Our opinion is not modified in respect of the above matter.

2. MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

2.1 Basis of Preparation of Consolidated Financial Statements & Statement of Compliance

These consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) prescribed under Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 (“the Act”) read with Rule 3 of the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 as amended under the historical cost convention on the accrual basis except for certain financial instruments which are measured at fair values and presentation and disclosure requirements of Division II of Schedule III of the act as applicable to Standalone Financial Statements.

Accounting policies have been consistently applied except where a newly issued accounting standard is initially adopted or a revision to an existing accounting standard require a change in accounting policy hitherto in use.

The consolidated financial statements are presented in Indian Rupees (‘INR’/‘₹’/‘Rs’.) and all values are rounded to the nearest lakh, except otherwise indicated.

The Consolidated Financial statements have been prepared using uniform accounting policies for like transactions and other events in similar circumstances and are presented to the extent possible in the same manner as the Company’s separate financial statements.

In respect of the Subsidiary company, the financial statements have been consolidated on a line-by-line basis by adding together the book values of like item of assets, liabilities, incomes and expenses, after fully eliminating intra-group balances and unrealised profits/losses on intra-group transactions as per Ind as - 110 - “Consolidated Financial Statements”.

The excess of cost to the Company of its investment in the Subsidiary Company over the Company’s share of net assets of the Subsidiary Company is recognised in the financial statements as goodwill, which is tested for impairment at each balance sheet date. The excess of Company’s share of net assets of the Subsidiary Company over the cost of acquisition is treated as capital reserve.

The results of operations of a Subsidiary are included in the Consolidated Financial Statements from the date on which the parent-Subsidiary relationship comes into existence.

The Notes and Significant Accounting Policies to the Consolidated Financial Statements are intended to serve as a guide for better understanding of the Group’s position. In this respect, the Group has disclosed such notes and policies, which represent the requisite disclosure.

All assets and liabilities have been classified as current or non-current as per the group’s normal operating cycle and other criteria set out in the Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013. Based on the nature of products and the time between the acquisition of assets for processing and their realisation in cash and cash equivalents, the group has ascertained its operating cycle as 12 months for the purpose of current – noncurrent classification of assets and liabilities.

2.2 Business Combination (Other than common control business combinations)

As per Ind AS 103, Business combinations are accounted for using the acquisition accounting method as at the date of the acquisition, which is the date at which control is transferred to the Group. The consideration transferred in the acquisition and the identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed are recognised at fair values on their acquisition date. Goodwill is initially measured at cost, being the excess of the aggregate of the consideration transferred and the amount recognised for non-controlling interests, and any previous interest held, over the net identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed. The Group recognises any non-controlling interest in the acquired entity on an acquisition by-acquisition basis either at fair value or at the non-controlling interest’s proportionate share of the acquired entity’s net identifiable assets. Consideration transferred does not include amounts related to settlement of pre-existing relationships. Such amounts are recognised in the standalone statement of profit and loss.

Transaction costs are expensed in the consolidated statement of profit and loss as incurred, other than those incurred in relation to the issue of debt or equity securities which are directly adjusted in other equity. Any contingent consideration payable is measured at fair value at the acquisition date. Subsequent changes in the fair value of contingent consideration are recognised in the consolidated statement of profit and loss.

Goodwill

Goodwill arising in a business combination represents the excess of the fair value of consideration over the identifiable net asset acquired. Goodwill acquired in a business combination is allocated to each of the Cash generating units (CGUs), or groups of CGUs, that is expected to benefit from the acquisition itself or from the synergies of the combination or both. Each unit or group of units to which the goodwill is allocated represents the lowest level within the entity at which the goodwill is monitored for internal management purposes.

Goodwill is tested for impairment annually and whenever there is an indication that the CGU may be impaired. The carrying value of the CGU containing the goodwill is compared to the recoverable amount, which is the higher of value in use and the fair value less costs of disposal.

Any impairment is recognised immediately as an expense and is not subsequently. Goodwill is subsequently measured at cost less accumulated impairments, if any.

2.3 Use of Assumptions Judgments and Estimates

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with Ind AS requires the management to make estimates, judgments and assumptions. These estimates, judgments and assumptions affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period. The application of accounting policies that require critical accounting estimates involving complex and subjective judgments and the use of assumptions in these consolidated financial statements have been disclosed below. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Appropriate changes in estimates are made as management becomes aware of changes in circumstances surrounding the estimates. Changes in estimates are reflected in the consolidated financial statements in the period in which changes are made and, if material, their effects are disclosed in the notes to the consolidated financial statements.

Critical accounting estimates

(a) Impairment of Goodwill

In relation to business combinations, judgement is required to be exercised on determining the fair values, identification and measurement of assets acquired and liabilities assumed, in allocation of purchase consideration, in deciding the amortisation policy for goodwill. Judgement is also required to be exercised as regards the manner in which carrying amount of goodwill is likely to be recovered. Goodwill is as a minimum, subjected to annual tests of impairment in line with the accounting policy (Refer no 2.2)

(b) Employee Benefits

The defined benefit plan are measured at fair value. Fair value determined using actuarial valuations. An actuarial valuation involves making various assumptions that may differ from actual developments in the future. These include the determination of the discount rate, future salary increases, mortality rates and attrition rate. Due to the complexities involved in the valuation and its long-term nature, a defined benefit obligation is highly sensitive to changes in these assumptions. All assumptions are reviewed annually using the best information available with the management.

(c) Impairment of financial assets

The impairment provisions for financial assets are based on assumptions about risk of default and expected loss rates. The Group uses judgement in making these assumptions and selecting the inputs to the impairment calculation based on Company’s past history, existing market conditions as well as forward looking estimates at the end of each reporting period.

(d) Impairment of Investment in Subsidiaries

Investments in subsidiaries are carried at cost and the Group shall review the carrying amount of such investments at each reporting date to assess for indicators of impairment. If any such indication exists, the investment is tested for impairment.

(e) Deferred Tax

Significant judgments are involved in assessing the realizability of deferred tax assets. The ultimate realization of deferred tax assets is dependent upon the generation of future taxable income. Management judgment is required to determine the amount of deferred tax assets that can be recognised, based upon the likely timing and the level of future taxable profits.

(f) Useful lives of Property, Plant and Equipment

Property, plant and equipment represent a significant proportion of the asset base of the Group. The charge in respect of periodic depreciation is derived after determining an estimate of an asset’s expected useful life and the expected residual value at the end of its life. The useful lives and residual values of Company’s assets are determined by the management at the time the asset is acquired and reviewed periodically, including at each financial year end. The lives are based on historical experience with similar assets as well as anticipation of future events, which may impact their life, such as changes in technology

(g) Provisions and Contingencies

In the normal course of business, contingent liabilities arise from litigations and claims. Potential liabilities that are possible but not probable of crystallising or are very difficult to quantify reliably are treated as contingent liabilities. Such contingent liabilities are disclosed in the notes but are not recognised. Potential liabilities that are remote are neither recognized nor disclosed as contingent liability. The management decides whether the matters needs to be classified as ‘remote’, ‘possible’ or ‘probable’ based on expert advice, past judgements, terms of the contract, regulatory provisions etc.

Notes forming part of the Consolidated Financial Statements

2.4 Revenue Recognition

The Company generates revenue from providing amusement park services, resort and others.

Revenue is recognised when (or as) control of goods or services is transferred to the customer. Revenue is measured at the transaction price, net of discounts and indirect taxes.

Revenue is recognized upon transfer of control of promised products or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration the company expect to receive in exchange for those products or services. The Company measures the revenues at fair value of the consideration received or receivable after taking in to account the amount of any discount or rebates allowed to the customers.

The Company presents revenues net of indirect taxes collected in its statement of profit and loss.

Tickets:

Entry Charges from amusement park/water park/snow park ticket sales are recognized when the entry tickets are issued to visitors.

Revenue from sale of Open Pass/Gift Passes or Open Day Tickets with all day validity which are Non-Refundable in nature are recognized when Passes/ Tickets are utilized or expired.

In revenue arrangements with multiple performance obligations, the Group accounts for individual products and services separately if they are distinct – i.e. if a product or service is separately identifiable from other items in the arrangement and if a customer can benefit from it. The consideration is allocated between separate products and services in the arrangement based on their stand-alone selling prices

Food/Beverages:

Revenue is recognized when food/ drinks are supplied or served or services rendered.

Merchandise:

Sales are recognized upon transfer of control of the goods to the customer.

Room Revenue/Banquet Services:

Revenue is recognized when the rooms are occupied and banquet services have been provided as per the contract with the customer.

Barter transactions:

When goods or services are exchanged or swapped for goods or services which are of a similar nature and value, the exchange is not regarded as a transaction which generates revenue.

When goods are sold or services are rendered in exchange for similar goods or services, the exchange is regarded as a transaction which generates revenue. The revenue is measured at the fair value of the goods or services received, adjusted by the amount of any cash or cash equivalents transferred. When the fair value of the goods or services received cannot be measured reliably, the revenue is measured at the fair value of the goods or services given up, adjusted by the amount of any cash or cash equivalents transferred

Others:

The revenue is recognized on accrual basis and when significant risk and rewards are transferred. Profit on sale of investments is recorded on transfer of title from the Group and is determined as the difference between the sale price and carrying value of the investment. Lease rentals are recognized on a straight line basis over the lease term.

Notes forming part of the Consolidated Financial Statements

2.5 Taxes on Income

Taxes on Income comprises of current tax and deferred tax. Current tax and deferred tax are recognized in profit and loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognized in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. In this case, the tax expense is also recognized in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

Current Tax

Current tax for current and prior periods is recognized at the amount expected to be paid to or recovered from the tax authorities, using the tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the balance sheet date. Where there is uncertainty over income tax treatments, the Group determines the probability of the income tax authorities accepting each such tax treatment or group of tax treatments in computing the most likely amount or the expected value of the tax treatment when determining taxable profit (tax loss), tax bases, unused tax losses, unused tax credits and tax rates.

Deferred Tax

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for all temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the consolidated financial statements. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are reviewed at each reporting date and are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realized.

Unrecognized deferred tax assets are re-assessed at each reporting date and are recognized to the extent that it has become probable that future taxable profits will allow the deferred tax asset to be recovered

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the balance sheet date and are expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect of changes in tax rates on deferred income tax assets and liabilities is recognized as income or expense in the period that includes the enactment or the substantive enactment date. The Group recognises deferred tax asset arising from unused tax losses or tax credits only to the extent that the company has sufficient taxable temporary differences or there is convincing other evidence that sufficient taxable profit will be available against which the unused tax losses or unused tax credits can be utilised by the company Other deferred tax assets are recognized to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences and tax losses can be utilized..

Current tax assets and current tax liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to set off the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle the asset and the liability on a net basis. Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to set off assets against liabilities representing current tax and where the deferred tax assets and the deferred tax liabilities relate to taxes on income levied by the same governing taxation laws.

2.6 Property, Plant and Equipment

Property, plant and equipment represent a significant proportion of the asset base of the Group.

The cost of an item of property, plant and equipment is recognized as an asset, if and only if:

- (a) it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the entity; and
- (b) the cost of the item can be measured reliably

Property, plant and equipment are stated at original cost net of tax / duty credit availed, less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. When significant parts of property, plant and equipment are required to be replaced at intervals, the Group derecognizes the replaced part and recognizes the new part with its own associated useful life and it is depreciated accordingly. Likewise, when a major inspection is performed, its cost is recognized in the carrying amount of the plant and equipment as a replacement if the recognition criteria are satisfied. All other repair and maintenance costs are recognized in the statement of profit and loss as incurred.

Notes forming part of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Capital work in progress includes cost of property, plant and equipment under installation / under development as at the balance sheet date.

Advances paid towards the acquisition of property, plant and equipment outstanding at each balance sheet date is classified as “Capital Advances” under other non-current assets. Subsequent expenditures relating to property, plant and equipment is capitalized only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with these will flow to the group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably.

Property, plant and equipment are eliminated from consolidated financial statement on disposal. Gains or losses arising from disposal of property, plant and equipment are recognized in the statement of profit and loss in the year of occurrence.

The assets’ residual values, useful lives and methods of depreciation are reviewed at each financial year end and adjusted prospectively, if appropriate.

Depreciation is charged on Straight Line Method over the useful life of the assets as specified in Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013 or on the basis of useful lives of the assets as estimated by management, whichever is lower. Useful life of the assets is tabulated below.

Notes forming part of the Consolidated Financial Statements

2.7 Intangible Assets

Intangible assets are recognised when it is probable that the future economic benefits that are attributable to the assets will flow to the Group and the cost of the asset can be measured reliably. Intangible assets are carried at cost less accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment losses, if any.

Intangible assets with finite lives are amortised over the estimated useful economic life of the assets by using straight line method and assessed for impairment whenever there is an indication that the intangible asset may be impaired.

Intangible assets are amortized as follows:

Sr. No.	Nature of asset	Estimated Useful Life
1.	Trademarks and Logos	10 Years
2.	Softwares	3 years to 6 Years
3.	Films	10 Years

Gains or losses arising from de - recognition of an intangible asset are measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and are recognized in the statement of profit and loss when the asset is derecognized.

The amortization period and the amortization method for intangible assets with a finite useful life are reviewed at the end of each reporting period.

2.8 Impairment of Non-Current Assets

The group assesses at each balancesheet date whether there is any indication that an asset may be impaired. Such circumstances include, though are not limited to, significant or sustained decline in revenues or earnings and material adverse changes in the economic environment.

An impairment loss is recognised whenever the carrying amount of an asset or its cash generating unit (CGU) exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount of an asset is the greater of its fair value less cost to sell and value in use. To calculate value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market rates and the risk specific to the asset. For an asset that does not generate largely independent cash inflows, the recoverable amount is determined for the CGU to which the asset belongs. Fair value less cost to sell is the best estimate of the amount obtainable from the sale of an asset in an arm’s length transaction between knowledgeable, willing parties, less the cost of disposal. Impairment losses, If any, are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss and included in depreciation and amortisation expenses. After impairment (if any), depreciation/ amortisation is provided on the revised carrying amount of the assets over its remaining life.

For assets an assessment is made at each reporting date to determine whether there is an indication that previously recognised impairment losses no longer exist or have decreased. If such indication exists, the group estimates the asset’s recoverable amount. A previously recognised impairment loss is reversed only if there has been a change in the assumptions used to determine the asset’s recoverable amount since the last impairment loss was recognised. The reversal is limited so that the carrying amount of the asset does not exceed its recoverable amount, nor exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation, had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset in prior years. Such reversal is recognised in the statement of profit and loss unless the asset is carried at a revalued amount, in which case, the reversal is treated as a revaluation increase.

2.9 Inventories

Inventories are valued at lower of cost and net realizable value after providing for obsolescence and other losses, where considered necessary.

Cost of Inventories are determined on Weighted Average Basis. The cost of inventories have been computed to include all cost of purchases, cost of conversion and other related costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition.

Notes forming part of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Net realizable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

Goods and materials in transit are valued at actual cost incurred up to the date of balance sheet.

2.10 Non-Current Assets Held for Sale

Non-current assets and disposal groups are classified as held for sale if their carrying amounts will be recovered principally through a sale transaction rather than through continuing use. Non-current assets and disposal groups classified as held for sale are measured at the lower of their carrying amount and fair value less costs to sell. This condition is regarded as met only when the sale is highly probable and the asset or disposal group is available for immediate sale in its present condition. Management must be committed to the sale, which should be expected to qualify for recognition as a completed sale within one year from the date of classification.

The Company does not depreciate (or amortise) a non-current asset while it is classified as held for sale.

2.11 Financial instruments

(i) Financial assets:

Initial recognition and measurement

All financial assets are recognised initially at fair value plus transaction costs that are attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset except in the case of financial assets recorded at fair value through Profit and Loss.

Financial assets are classified, at initial recognition, as financial assets measured at fair value or as financial assets measured at amortised cost.

Subsequent measurement

For purposes of subsequent measurement financial assets are classified in two broad categories:

- Financial assets at fair value
- Financial assets at amortised cost

Where assets are measured at fair value, gains and losses are either recognised entirely in the statement of profit and loss (i.e. fair value through profit or loss), or recognised in other comprehensive income (i.e. fair value through other comprehensive income).

A financial asset that meets the following two conditions is measured at amortised cost (net of any write down for impairment) unless the asset is designated at fair value through profit or loss under the fair value option.

- Business model test: The objective of the Group’s business model is to hold the financial asset to collect the contractual cash flows (rather than to sell the instrument prior to its contractual maturity to realise its fair value changes).
- Cash flow characteristics test: The contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

A financial asset that meets the following two conditions is measured at fair value through other comprehensive income unless the asset is designated at fair value through profit or loss under the fair value option.

- Business model test: The financial asset is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets.
- Cash flow characteristics test: The contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

Even if an instrument meets the two requirements to be measured at amortised cost or fair value through other comprehensive income, a financial asset is measured at fair value through profit or loss if doing so eliminates or significantly reduces a measurement or recognition inconsistency (sometimes referred to as an ‘accounting mismatch’) that would otherwise arise from measuring assets or liabilities or recognising the gains and losses on them on different bases.

All other financial asset is measured at fair value through profit or loss.

All equity investments are measured at fair value in the balance sheet, with value changes recognised in the statement of profit and loss, except for those equity investments for which the entity has elected to present value changes in ‘other comprehensive income’.

If an equity investment is not held for trading, an irrevocable election is made at initial recognition to measure it at fair value through other comprehensive income with only dividend income recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

De - recognition

A financial asset (or, where applicable, a part of a financial asset or part of a group of similar financial assets) is primarily derecognised (i.e. removed from the Group statement of financial position) when:

- The rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired, or
 - The Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from the asset or has assumed an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without material delay to a third party under a ‘pass-through’ arrangement and either
 - (a) the Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset,
- OR
- (b) the Group has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset.

Investment in subsidiaries

The Company has accounted for its investment in subsidiaries at cost and the same are tested for impairment in case of any indication of impairment

(ii) Financial liabilities and equity instruments

(a) Classification as debt or equity

Financial liabilities, debts and equity instruments issued by the Company are classified according to the substance of the contractual arrangements entered into and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument.

(b) Equity instruments

An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of the Company after deducting all of its liabilities. Equity instruments are recorded at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs.

(c) Financial Liabilities

All financial liabilities are measured subsequently at amortised cost using the effective interest method or at FVTPL.

(d) Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss include financial liabilities held for trading and financial liabilities designated upon initial recognition as at fair value through profit or loss.

Notes forming part of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Financial liabilities are classified as held for trading if they are incurred for the purpose of repurchasing in the near term. This category also includes derivative financial instruments entered into by the Group that are not designated as hedging instruments in hedge relationships as defined by Ind AS 109. Separated embedded derivatives are also classified as held for trading unless they are designated as effective hedging instruments.

Gains or losses on liabilities held for trading are recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

Financial liabilities designated upon initial recognition at fair value through profit or loss are designated at the initial date of recognition, and only if the criteria in Ind AS 109 are satisfied.

Loans and borrowings

After initial recognition, interest-bearing loans and borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the EIR method.

Gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss when the liabilities are derecognised as well as through the EIR amortisation process.

Amortised cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortisation is included as finance costs in the statement of profit and loss.

De - recognition

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognized in the statement of profit and loss.

(iii) Offsetting of financial instruments:

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the balance sheet if there is a currently enforceable legal right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis, to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously

2.12 Impairment of Financial Asset:

In case of trade receivables and lease receivables, the Group follows a simplified approach wherein an amount equal to lifetime Expected Cash Flow (ECL) is measured and recognised as loss allowance.

In case of other assets (listed as i and ii above), the Group determines if there has been a significant increase in credit risk of the financial asset since initial recognition. If the credit risk of such assets has not increased significantly, an amount equal to 12-month ECL is measured and recognised as loss allowance. However, if credit risk has increased significantly, an amount equal to lifetime ECL is measured and recognised as loss allowance.

Subsequently, if the credit quality of the financial asset improves such that there is no longer a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, the Group reverts to recognising impairment loss allowance based on 12-month ECL.

ECL is the difference between all contractual cash flows that are due to the Group in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the entity expects to receive (i.e., all cash shortfalls), discounted at the original effective interest rate.

Lifetime ECL are the expected credit losses resulting from all possible default events over the expected life of a financial asset. 12-month ECL area portion of the lifetime ECL which result from default events that are possible within 12 months from the reporting date.

ECL are measured in a manner that they reflect unbiased and probability weighted amounts determined by a range of outcomes, taking into account the time value of money and other reasonable information available as a result of past events, current conditions and forecasts of future economic conditions.

Notes forming part of the Consolidated Financial Statements

2.13 Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets

A provision is recognized if, as a result of a past event, the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation that is reasonably estimable, and it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation. Provisions are determined based on the best estimate required to settle the obligation at the balance sheet date.

Contingent liabilities are disclosed when there is a possible obligation arising from past events, the existence of which will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Group or a present obligation that arises from past events where it is either not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation or a reliable estimate of the amount cannot be made

Contingent assets are not recognised in standalone financial statements since this may result in the recognition of income that may never be realised. However, when the realisation of income is virtually certain, then the related asset is not a contingent asset and its recognition is appropriate.

2.14 Foreign Currency Transactions

Functional currency

The functional currency of the group is Indian Rupees ('INR'/'₹'/'Rs'.). These Consolidated financial statements are presented in Indian Rupees and the all values are rounded to the nearest Lakh, except otherwise indicated.

Transactions and translations

Foreign-currency denominated monetary assets and liabilities are translated into the relevant functional currency at exchange rates in effect at the balance sheet date. Gains and losses, if any, at the year-end in respect of monetary assets and monetary liabilities not covered by the forward contracts are transferred to Profit & Loss Account except for Long Term Foreign Currency Monetary Items. Transaction gains or losses realized upon settlement of foreign currency transactions are included in determining net profit for the period in which the transaction is settled.

Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are not retranslated.

2.15 Borrowing Cost

Borrowing costs that are attributable to acquisition and construction of qualifying assets are capitalized till the asset is ready for its intended use, based on borrowings incurred specifically for financing the asset or the weighted average rate of all other borrowings, if no specific borrowings have been incurred for the asset. A qualifying asset is one that necessarily takes substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use.

All other borrowing costs are recognized as expenditure in the year in which they are incurred.

Income earned on temporary investment made out of the borrowings pending utilization for expenditure on the qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs eligible for capitalization.

Capitalization of borrowing costs ceases when substantially all the activities necessary to prepare the qualifying assets for their intended use are complete.

2.16 Earnings per Equity Share

Basic earnings per share

Basic earnings per share are calculated by dividing:

- the profit attributable to owners of the Group
- by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the financial year, adjusted for bonus elements in equity shares issued during the year and excluding treasury shares.

Diluted earnings per share

Diluted earnings per share is calculated by adjusting the profit attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding to reflect the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

Notes forming part of the Consolidated Financial Statements

In calculating diluted EPS:

- the profit attributable to equity shareholders is adjusted for the after tax effects of dividend, interest and other charges to income or expense associated with dilutive potential equity shares, and
- The weighted average number of equity shares is increased by the weighted average number of additional equity shares that would have been outstanding assuming the conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares.

The dilutive potential equity shares are adjusted for the proceeds receivable had the equity shares been actually issued at fair value (i.e. the average market value of the outstanding equity shares). Dilutive potential equity shares are deemed to be converted as at the beginning of the period, unless issued at a later date. Dilutive potential equity shares are determined independently for each period presented.

The number of equity shares and potentially dilutive equity shares are adjusted retrospectively for all periods presented for any share splits and bonus shares issues including for changes effected

2.17 Employee Benefit

Short term benefits

Benefits such as salaries, wages, performance incentives etc., and the expected cost of bonus, ex-gratia are recognised during the period in which the employee renders related service.

Liabilities recognized in respect of short term benefits are measured at the undiscounted amount of the benefit expected to be paid in exchange for the related services.

Post employment benefits

The Group operates the following post employment schemes:

Defined Contribution plans such as provident fund, superannuation, pension, employee state insurance scheme

- Payments to defined contribution retirement benefit plans are recognised as an expense when employees have rendered the service entitling them to the contribution.

Defined Benefit plans such as provident fund and Gratuity

The cost of providing benefits under the defined benefit plan is determined using the projected unit credit method with actuarial valuations being carried out at each balance sheet date, which recognises each period of service as giving rise to additional unit of employee benefit entitlement and measure each unit separately to build up the final obligation.

Net interest is calculated by applying the discount rate to the net defined benefit liability or asset.

The Group recognises the following changes in the net defined benefit obligation under employee benefit expenses in the statement of profit and loss.

- Service costs comprising current service costs, past-service costs, gains and losses on curtailments and non-routine settlements,
- Net interest expense or income.

Remeasurements, comprising of actuarial gains and losses, the effect of the asset ceiling, excluding amounts included in net interest on the net defined benefit liability and the return on plan assets (excluding amounts included in net interest on the net defined benefit liability), are recognised immediately in the balance sheet with a corresponding debit or credit to retained earnings through other comprehensive income in the period in which they occur. Remeasurements are not reclassified to the statement of profit and loss in subsequent periods.

Other Long-term employee benefits

Compensated absences which are not expected to occur within twelve months after the end of the period in which the employee renders the related services are recognised as a liability at the present value of the defined benefit obligation at the balance sheet date.

Notes forming part of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Termination benefits

Termination benefits are recognised as an expense in the period in which they are incurred.

Employee Share based payment

The Group operates equity settled share based plan for the employees. The fair value of equity settled share options based on shares of the Company is initially measured at grant date and is charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss over the vesting period, which is the period over which all of the specified vesting conditions are satisfied, and with a corresponding increase in equity. The fair value excludes the effect of non market based vesting conditions.

2.18 Cash flow Statement

Cash flows are reported using the indirect method, whereby profit for the period is adjusted for the effects of transactions of a non-cash nature, any deferrals or accruals of past or future operating cash receipts or payments and item of income or expenses associated with investing or financing cash flows. The cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities of the Group are segregated.

2.19 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand and demand deposits with banks which are short-term, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash and which are subject to insignificant risk of changes in value.

2.20 Short-term leases and leases of low-value assets

The Group has elected not to recognise right of use assets and lease liabilities for short term leases that have a lease term of less than or equal to 12 months with no purchase option and assets with low value leases. The Group recognises the lease payments associated with these leases as an expense in statement of profit and loss over the lease term.

2.21 Government grants

Government grants are recognized where there is reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and all attached conditions will be complied with.

Grants relating to expenses are recognized as income on a systematic basis over the periods that the related costs, for which it is intended to compensate, are incurred.

Grants relating to assets are recognized as income over the expected useful life of the related asset on a systematic basis.

2.22 Exceptional Items

Certain occasions, the size, type or incidence of an item of income or expense, pertaining to the ordinary activities of the Group is such that its disclosure improves the understanding of the performance of the Group, such income or expense is classified as an exceptional item and accordingly, disclosed in the notes accompanying to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

2.23 Segment reporting

The Board of Directors of the Group has been identified as the Chief Operating Decision Maker (CODM) as defined by Ind AS 108, “Operating Segments. Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the CODM.

The accounting policies adopted for segment reporting are in conformity with the accounting policies adopted for the Company. Revenue and expenses have been identified to segments on the basis of their relationship to the operating activities of the segment. Income/Costs which relate to the Group as a whole and are not allocable to segments on a reasonable basis, have been included under Unallocated Income/Costs. Interest income and expense are not allocated to respective segments (except in case of Financial Services segment).

In accordance with Ind AS 108 ‘Operating Segments’, segment information has been given in the consolidated financial statements of the Company.

Notes forming part of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Trade receivables

Trade receivables are amounts of consideration that is unconditional due from customers (i.e., only the passage of time is required before payment of the consideration is due) for goods sold or services performed in the ordinary course of business. They are generally due for settlement within one year and therefore are all classified as current. Where the settlement is due after one year, they are classified as non-current. Trade receivables are recognised initially at the amount of consideration that is unconditional unless they contain significant financing components, in which case they are recognised at fair value. The Group holds the trade receivables with the objective to collect the contractual cash flows and therefore measures them subsequently at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

Provision towards dividend payable is made when the amount of any dividend declared, is appropriately authorised and no longer at the discretion of the entity, on or before the end of the reporting period but not distributed at the end of the reporting period.

2.24 New and amended standards

The Group applied for the first-time certain standards and amendments, which are effective for annual periods beginning on or after April 1 2025. The Group has not early adopted any standard, interpretation or amendment that has been issued but is not yet effective.

In May 2025, MCA notified amendments to Ind AS 21 - The Effects of Changes in Foreign Exchange Rates, applicable w.e.f. April 1, 2025. The Group has reviewed the amendment and based on its evaluation has determined that it does not have any significant impact in its financial statements.

In August, 2025, MCA notified the following amendments to:

1. Ind AS 7, Statement of Cash Flows and Ind AS 107, Financial Instruments - Disclosures, applicable w.e.f April 1, 2025 – The amendment in Ind AS 7 requires to inform users of financial statements of the existence of supplier finance arrangements and explain the nature of the arrangements, the carrying amount of liabilities and the range of payment due dates. Ind AS 107 has been amended to add supplier finance arrangements as a factor that may cause concentration of liquidity risk. The Company has reviewed the amendment and based on its evaluation has determined that it does not have any significant impact in its financial statements.
2. Ind AS 12, International Tax Reform – Pillar Two Model Rules applicable immediately - The amendments provide a temporary mandatory relief from deferred tax accounting for top-up tax and disclose that they have applied the relief. This relief is immediate and applies retrospectively. The amendments also require companies to provide new disclosures to compensate for potential loss of information resulting from the relief. Such disclosures are to be provided for annual reporting periods beginning on or after April 1, 2025. The Company has no impact of these amendments.

2.25 Standards issued but not effective

There are no standards that are notified and not yet effective as on the date.

Critical Management judgements and Accounting Estimates

Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-current and Non-current Liabilities with Covenants – Amendments to Ind AS 1- The amendments clarify that lender waivers obtained after the reporting date cannot be considered for the purpose of classifying liabilities as current or non current and require retrospective application in accordance with Ind AS 8. These amendments are effective for reporting periods beginning on or after April 1, 2026. The Company does not expect any impact on its financial statements.

NOTE 44: Fair Value Measurement

Financial Instrument by category and hierarchy

The fair values of the financial assets and liabilities are included at the amount at which the instrument could be exchanged in a current transaction between willing parties, other than in a forced or liquidation sale.

The following methods and assumptions were used to estimate the fair values:

Fair value of cash and short-term deposits, trade and other short-term receivables, trade payables, other current liabilities, short term loans from banks and other financial institutions approximate their carrying amounts largely due to short term maturities of these instruments.

Financial instruments with fixed and variable interest rates are evaluated by the Group based on parameters such as interest rates and individual credit worthiness of the counterparty. Based on this evaluation, allowances are taken to account for expected losses of these receivables. Accordingly, fair value of such instruments is not materially different from their carrying amounts.

The fair value of an asset or a liability is measured using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, assuming that market participants act in their economic best interest.

The Group uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximizing the use of relevant observable inputs and minimizing the use of unobservable inputs.

The fair values for Non-Current borrowings, loans and security deposits were calculated based on cash flows discounted using a current lending rate. They are classified as level 3 fair values in the fair value hierarchy due to the inclusion of unobservable inputs including counter party credit risk.

The Group uses the following hierarchy for determining and disclosing the fair value of financial instruments by valuation technique:

Level 1: quoted (unadjusted) prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2: other techniques for which all inputs which have a significant effect on the recorded fair value are observable, either directly or indirectly.

Level 3: techniques which use inputs that have a significant effect on the recorded fair value that are not based on observable market data
